Pushan Bal : Shrinuuuu! Although you were not from my wing, we never felt that you were an outsider. A constant presence whenever the guys played PUBG. I will miss those discussions about work that we had while coming back from classes at 7pm. You are a very dedicated person and am sure that you will achieve great heights. Hoping to stay in touch.

Chinmay Kalra : Srinu anna!! Initially I knew you only as 'Sridhar's brother', but it is when you started coming to my wing that I got to explore you better. You are a very dedicated PUBG player, though it may not reflect in your gameplay 😊. Jokes apart, you are a very hardworking & focused lad. Keep the momentum going bro. Will miss u.
