Aryan Aryan : Kaha se start kare samajh nhi aa rha 😂. Cheers to those late night walks and H13C k trips ♥ I've heard a lot about the drunk Chaithanya! Let's meet him soon 😊 Thanks for always being there, irrespective of how I behaved with you. You are truly one of a kind. Achhe din aane wale hain (according to your Jyotish). Uske baad bhool mat jaana XD

Rohan Garg : Joint! Apna max time to council bitching mein gaya hai :p And I am still not convinced that tune pandemic nahi spread kiya after converting to dual and making life hell for us. But dude you are awesome, keep up the good spirits, and don't forget your plans to have daaru party at my place next sem

Riya Singh : Hello Athletics buddy.. Those time spent in first year summer camp <3 Later we interacted rarely - GMRT trip and QM1. All the best for your future endeavours.

Rahul chunduru : One word - Guruji. Total respect for all the achievements and works you did over the years. I really liked your and Avinash's duo for projects and assigns. Always keeping things to the very end and our last-minute fixes before deadlines.. lol. I knew you were a fun guy to hang around with, and the goa trip proved it. Being a pillion rider to you was more risk and fun and memorable than any other ride in goa (^w^) Underneath all the chill, you are true to yourself and you live by ur principles. That's why I guess chatting with you can be both fun and profound. So, ja naik ja, jee lo apni zindagi. All the best in future, bro !!!

Sigireddi Yamuna Devi : I remember the first time I met you, the second the third and each time since then. I don't want them to be just memories written here or somewhere. Let's relive them, reinvent them again and again till the end of the time. 😊

Kriti Kamna : 1 saal ruk tu bhi -.-

Yash Shah : Yo roomie! Miss karenge tumhe!! Turning off lights at night so that I can sleep and moving my laptop from my bed to the table so that it doesn't fall, har bimaari k liye tablet rakhna 😊, filling the tabletop with delicious home-made snacks, maintaining peace and quiet whenever required --- you were the most understanding and caring roommate/friend one could ask for ♥. Stay the same, touch me to rahenge hi!

Ganesh Chelluboyina : Back when we were slogging it out in coaching (five years ago?), we'd always be the late ones at the lunch mess, just before close time. We'd have warm conversations over the cold food. I always liked your happy demeanor and wit, which have only sharpened over the years. We saw each other infrequently toward the end of college- I do wish we caught up more often! All the best with what is ahead, don't forget to stay in touch!

Harshwardhan Mourya : Ohh M(n)ude Nayak, I actually can't think of a conversation with you which doesn't ended with having a smile on my face (except when you're drunk 😊). those short conversations humesha mood fresh kardeti hai. Kaafi humorous. Kaafi machate ho aap, apne wo departements events kaafi yaadgaar rahe. Kaafi acche insaan ho tum..

Ashi Gupta : 4 hr run☺... Kitna kataya h maine bhaagne ke liye☺... Iss baar finally I wanted to take part... I think we met first time in sophomore year in Athletics.... And you always wonder which sophie cs girl would take part in which dept gc☺.. Running sessions were fun☺... Stay happy☺... All the best☺

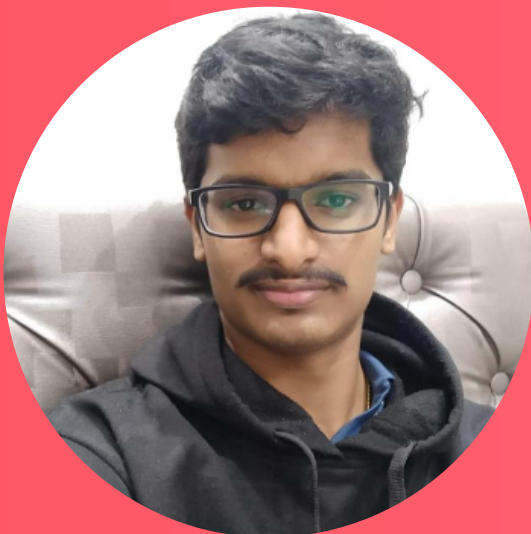

Amit Gangurde : Sweetie bro!! Had a really great time with you and the whole team. Tere saath kaafi maza aaya Udaipur trip pe and that tent wala incident was hilarious☺. I'll remember you as a very cheerful and chill person. Keep rocking and stay in touch!

Ambati Satvik : Bhayya! agle saal likhunga :)))

Aashay Biyani : Now writing about you, seems like you are staying for another year. You were the most chill in DGSC. Its sad that we couldn't have our DGSC Hoodie or the DGSC treat that we had discussed about.

Navnit Kumar : Chaitanya Bro apna bhai hai tu yaar. Tune Dual me convert kiya ab toh apan saath me hi graduate honge hopefully last yr me aur fond memories bnayenge hum. Cheers Aditya Chalishazar : It was interesting to interact with you during the course of this tenure. You're one of the people with the clearest thought processes I have seen. All the best for whatever is to come! :)

Rupesh DNE : Sorry we couldn't share the same hostel but we for sure shared so many trips and memories. Thanks for coming on the Khandaala trip bro. Life is all about memories and we sure made a lot. Listening to each others bad trips and some good ones too. And this isn't the end, aage bhi chalta rahega apan ka. Always.

N Jagadeep Sai : You have too many "h" in your name, does it stand for halcyon ? To the guy who stays too calm in the room of fire and says " This is fine " :P. I still remember those assignment nights... deadline approaching and I am saying that this left, that error blah blah, then you timeline it and calculate it will be completed in time :P. Don't worry March will come again and so will i, distant in space yet constant to time. If it doesn't make much sense don't think about it. Do keep yourself free sometime... :)

Sharath Chandra Ale : Rey kode!! A vehicle can reach its limit only when it has breaks. Many of my decisions in Insti had your effect in some way or the other. Losing you to her made me go mad at you many a times. I know you think a lot on others but couldn't show. Be you pakode khan!

Deep Karkhanis : Bro!!! Thanks a lot for your infi help... From branch change course swap to BTP presentations, you have been my sole go-to guy. Voluntary work ke liye itna dedication rarely kisi main hota hai. Atb for the future and do stay in touch...
