Aryan Agal : Mrunzzzzzzzz you're damn lively. Take care of your zzzzzzzs. Tu kabhi kabhi pagal lagti hai mujhe xD Stay that way :p

Kushagra Kacholia : Ma'am, aapse jitna bhi interaction hua hai usme yeh seekhne ko mila hai ki life me kuch bhi ho jaye, har chiz ko haste hue kaise liya jata hai. The answer is with a lot of zzzzzz's. Hamesha aise hi muskurate raho aur dusron ko muskurane ka mauka do.

Swarali Ghodkhande : I don't have words to describe our bond. The first time I met you in H15, I had a feeling that we are gonna be best friends forever. And how funny it is even everybody thinks that we knew each other before IIT. You are my home away from home. I am soo gonnna miss all the romance, cheeselings and pizza eating sessions, nonsense laughter, and, most importantly, our love for old songs. Keep that child inside you the same. I couldn't have gotten a better life savior than you. Thank you for being you. US jake bhulna mat bs, and hopefully waha mil paye :P And you should also know that I love you the most <3

Debanjali Chatterjee : Mrunzzz... 8th std mein pehli baar mile the hum.. uske baad IITB mein.. hamesha smiling face rakhna koi aapse seekhe, chahe jitna bhi pressure ho life mein. Love you babezzz <3 and ab Universal Studios Florida saath mein jayenge, pakka :D

Mudita Rana : Mrunzzz 💛 always gonna remember you as the fun chirpy one, spreading smiles wherever she goes. 1st year labs without you would just be meh. No fun, no jokes :p stay in touch ♥

Akash Sharma : zzzzzz....kaha hai tu humesa ki tarah late ...treat kab de rahi ...be cheerfull & energetic as you are always ... first year tf & final year that where we interacted .. Be in touch ...Good bye :)) Abhinav Jain : Ab mai kya hi bolu aapke baare mein... The only roll number which I always remember except mine is yours, and that makes sense we've been lab partners since eternity now! Best friend since the second year, I never had friends for so long and I am so grateful to have one like you. Lazy, crazy and foody, US jaake apna dhyaan rakhna haan (I have to say this explicitly cause I really doubt you would know this already, kya thodi dumb hona ;p) Jokes aside, I don't think I would miss anyone as much as you, those Shiru cafe ki coffees, class notebooks pe scribbles, and making 5th grader jokes like H10 ki Istri... all will be so incomplete or unsatisfying in your absence :/ Take care :-)

Ayan Choudhary : Solid mech lab was fun for others because you only did work sincerely and also post processing in MATLAB xD. Thanks for continuing tradition in every dept kurta day 😊 All the best :D

Animesh Singhal : If you remember, we met at Darshil's birthday treat! From there, Powai treasure hunt to being BC mates, to you and Abhinav being the best lab partners, to the ISMP experience; I had a great time! Special thanks for the support during my 4th semester, you and Abhinav made my life simpler. And dude, Solid lab mein AP XD? And look, that facilitated you to choose Solid Mechanics as your career :P. Good luck for your Post Graduation! You'll definitely do wonders!

Shreyas Chaudhari : Hey Mrunzzz...., one of the favourite character in the group with kindness and wisdom. Always enjoyed working with you in TL and CC building, plus you are the person jiske sath kabhi giveup vali feeling nahi aati. Missing your cheering, supportive and childish behaviour. Our group will always active and waiting for "psych/ludo/pictionary anyone...!!!!"

Rishika Gupta : Isn't it amazing how you start exactly at same place where you left with some people. Thanks for being that friend to me. 😊 Thanks for being my go-to person for all the problems I have ever had and never ever judging me no matter how silly they were. 🤔 Thanks for being my single meme share partner. 😂 You are as screwed up as I am 🙄 I can never imagine planning my study schedule for endsems without you. 🤪 It's crazy seeing you so chill in the most critical situations but lesser do people know that you don't think of all the pros and cons in the first place 🤔 Please improve your choice of crushes. 🙄 Aise aage nai chalega. Abhi tak to main thi aage kaun bachayega 🙄 ♀ Sometimes, I so envy your chilled out and positive attitude. How can anyone be like that!! Stay the same. 💖💖 And remember, you are never ever allowed to have fight with me. 💖💖 Pleaseeeeeee come to Hyderabad!!!! 🙄

Ashi Gupta : Hey, I don't know if you remember we met for the first time in convo orientation. I have many happy memories with you from wingi to NSO yoga. You are chill as well as machau! Stay same. Tanya Gupta : Mrunzzzz! It's just my luck that I do an internship in the first year and end up meeting your brand of crazy! We haven't looked back since then! Do you even talk in normal English? From ZZZ to BNN, listening to your love for chicken, me guessing your crushes and us studying together, we have done it all! Your oscillation between MS and PhD now seems funny to think about, though then it was like this million dollar question. I am pretty sure me loving your lame sense of humor says a lot about my own xD Don't even get me started on your obsession with Harry Potter, it far surpasses my own. I love that you just randomly dress-up on a random weekday with no care what people think, and I hope you stay the same and don't let the world ruin this spirit of yours!

Apoorva S. Janawlekar : (omg im gonna get real senti while writing this, so brace for impact XD)...mrunzzzz im gonna miss you soooooooooooooo much and im so sure you're gonna do awesome things after this. ill always remember that time we did wingies game night, your infi teeps and treeks, your foodie stories and your overall friendly and cool presence. thanks for listening to my unending annoying rants with soooooooo much patience and for being there as a relatable and chill figure. thanks for making me feel not-overwhelmed and for being you. thanks for being the coolest SMP mentor (along with anusha). hoping to meet you soon after quarantine, till then, take care and keep in touch :)

Leena Chaudhari : Hey Mrunmayi dii !! 😊 Thanks for always being there and listening to all my silly talks, my stupid ideas and me crying about all the insti mosquitoes biting me XD. And what's funnier it that you were even trying to find a solution for that .. 😂 (But I really appreciate it) You have always been more like a sister than an ISMP mentor to me. I'm gonna miss you soo bad 😭. I know you will do some very amazing and awesome things in the future . Stay the same always. Your smile can turn any and every situation into a cheerful one. So keep that beautiful smile on your face always. Hoping to meet you soon. ♥ P.S. I won't stop calling you dii 😊

Shubhankar Mihir Seth : MM yaa, I feel so cool I don't need to write Mrunzzz! LA people have no idea what's going to hit them - vahan bhi sab okayzzz and coolzzz bolne lagenge. I'm sure you know you're crazy, but it was that craziness that got us through those maddening times. Kitna khaana order karte the (XD) when SN would go back to the hostel. From e-mail goof-ups to confessions drama, it wouldn't have been half as much fun without you. It's amazing how you would keep smiling through all the crap that would happen, I hope you never lose that. Cheers to the most bindaas person I know!

R Sucheta : WnCC, thats where it all started. O:) Hackathons, organizing events, trying to not make Nihal angry :P, late night cheese maggi dates (wish we had more X(), going late to EVERY OS class and doing SMP work :P (setting wrong example eh? :P), last minute prep and scoring the EXACT same marks (I still wonder how! XD), tere ghar waale treats (Aunty is too sweet, tu kabhi khudse treat nahi deti hai -_-), teasing arunabh, all the times I thought I lost my hoodie but found it (Oops :P), MI creatives days and many moreeeee. Damn, so much has happened and now I am gonna miss the bubbly, 3zzz ki OCD wali and hamesha grin karne wali paglu Mrunzzz! Love you loads be and all the best :')

Jovina Vaswani : Mrunzzz♥ Tu bohot pyaari bandi hai yaar. First year se tko bohot admire kiya hai maine. The way you motivate others to do things, the way you console people when they are feeling low, and put up with negativity, is something I have always looked upto. You are a very beautiful person, and I feel delighted every time you achieve something in life. You are a marvellously strong and talented and sharp woman, while at the same time you have retained your childishness, cuteness and sweet personality. Please keep believing in yourself, and remember that you deserve the world♥♥.

Rishabh Raj : If I'm being honest, the States adventure would have been nothing but a trifle without you being with us! The voice of command and confidence, you handled and guided all three of us extremely well! Exceptionally friendly, always animated and fun to interact with. It was great knowing you. Big fan of your knack for coming up with shayaris and poems in almost no time!! Please don't look down upon Veg food 🙄 and stop killing me in Ludo (Kya bigaada hai maine 😂!). Also reiterating, my small black comb costs $2.50 (ignore 49), and not ₹175😂! Hoping that you'll have an awe of a time in your PhD journey. See you soon!

Vardhil Mehta : Mrunmayi! Apan MD k time mile the. Vo MD ki pehli meet k baad jab apan log H10 canteen gaye the, fir randomly stand up video dekhne lage the (HR, Friday & Emails vala :P), fir mera vo "hot chocolate" k evolution ka description! MD ki to kafi sari memory h. And ofc Tanmay sir k courses ki to bat hi alag thi! Also, you are the only other person I've ever met jisko Solid Mech se pyaar h <3. Jitna interaction hua h us se ye to pata chala h ki you never lose your temper and always so calm. Haste haste har problem ko handle kar leti h. I wish I could put GIFs here (of Chris Evans may be XD). The GIF God. Yuhi haste haste machate rehna. Now, "Diagonally" to UCLA! :P

Sarthak Nijhawan : zzzzzzzzzzzzz (had to recheck it 5+ times to ensure it's a multiple of 3). Well, where do we start? Interviews! Oh my- Hahaha, could they've been any better? Guy waiting outside, me calling at 8:59 & a drowsy person picks up to say "omw". Ur laptop! (Always broke down at crucial moments :P). Here's to u zoning out mid-interviews, SMS & u colluding non-stop to pull my leg, that late-night dinner we 3 had near Main Gate, linguistics :P & so much more. I know there's more to everything than meets the eye. But I'll spare u from that for now - "will tell you when we meet next" :P. All the best for ur future madam & always be that same smiling potterhead exuding zzz all along. Until then...

Aayush Anurag : Mrunzzzz, I hope you recognise me the next time you see me 😊 . You were the heart and soul of the Intern Trio (tch tch Quartet). Though every so often, it felt like Living with Two Kids, it wouldn't have been so much fun without you. Thanks for dragging the indecisive me to Papa John's & every other eating place (Repeated Dharm Bhrasht 😊😊), to New York (Brooklyn Park♥) for 4 days, the completely soaked me to Walmart, for turning me into Monkey in every word game, for making me look at aisles for hours in Giant and finally, making Malone Hall so memorable. Forever be this light-hearted and lively girl and Go ahead be a great customer of LA Dunkin' Donuts.

Anjali Yadav : Mrunzzzz madam...the perfect three zzz...madam kahan rehte ho ajkaL XD...though u were my mentor, nd not kidding u have motivated nd supported me enough...but kbhi mentor wali pheel nhi aayi yaar...u were always a friend, a golden one...apke kaddu jokes, aur kbhi na khatam hone wali bhook, ooof...I can never forget PARCHED nd d way u ruined it...aap jab bhi wing m aate the it felt amazing, mummy ;)...Tanny k bday yaad rkhnab, mere bhi...aapko phurst mili toh khau gali jayenge...waise to saath m street shopping bhi baaki h, I still hate u for the FOMO I used to have jab aap aur Priya HP discuss krte the...Love u lots, BRO...and BOHRI tr8 kab h, I'm not stopping this until u give me one :)

Kumar Ashutosh : Yo Mrunzzzz (obviously I need to be careful about the z's), WnCC was a good time. We had some much of good and insightful discussions on various junctions of your insti life. And that HS course :P. I never expected you would be equally uninterested in that course. I am glad we survived the course. And then finally into the SMP team. You are jovial and at the same time serious about what you do. Stay the same and best of luck!!

Pattisapu Divya : Mrunmayiiii! Second year was so much fun with youu. Your PJs were always terrible, so terrible that I'd laugh at them and then at you. You're always crazy, 24/7 always. But that's a good look on you! It suits you so well. Remember the 'Well Established Area'? And the amazing coin toss that would help decide who'd be the class rep. But in the end, we both got tossed out of the section. 😂 How's your exercise routine 😊? I'll miss you a lot!

Darshan Tank : Mrunzzzz (right number of z's na?), The machau roll beti! I am happy that you kept the legacy of branch change intact. We haven't talked much in last two years, but it was fun interacting with you before that. From XLR8 to MI App, you have excelled at whatever you have done. As I used to say, Machati reh yuhi!

Hetvee Marviya : Mrun(zzz), SMPC banne ka first learning to aapka naam hi tha. You are one of the friendliest people I have come across and you can light up a room with your cheerfulness. Thankyou for being a saviour in our initial interviews and teaching us how to get accustomed to the main building life, (we lack the Marathi magic though;p) You have taught me to smile through, even when you are tensed or have huge amounts of work. Hope to keep on learning from you! All the best for ahead! <3

Parag Mundhada : Hey Mrunzzzz, You are one of the friendliest and jovial person that I have met in insti. I really will never know how someone can manage 54 credits along with SMP interviews? Right from MI Coordie tenure to now, i have always seen you smiling, I hope you keep smiling always. Keep guiding us and staying in touch

Peecha mat kar mera :p I'm not even going to try making this sound like farewell because lets fate it history gives us proof that we will stumble into each other again and my only wish is that the quality of your jokes be better then. From salsa in the first year to the countless labs together to BCing to mech to the food hogging we did in the treats "I" gave you, it was all super fun. You're such a sweet person Mrunmayi, please always stay the same! Until next time :) PS- "The music stops and echoes on in sweet refrains, for every joy that passes something beautiful remains."
