Mrigank Ashesh : Sabu 🙏🏻 apni kripa humeesha banaye rakhna. Also, you owe me paper correctons ke liye. Mere broker Sahil se baat Karenla😂 Your positivity and cheerfulness has admired a lot of people including me. I am blessed to have met you. I had a good time laughing with you. You have a contagious laughter. Stay same. All the est for your future. Stay in touch.

Ananay Garg : Not enough is said about you, bro. I dont understand you, but i guess i dont have to. You make me rip my hair out with how fucking accommodating you are. Bro you deserve kisses - for the person that you are. How do i join a course to understand how you function? You make the world a better place by being in it. You radiate love and concern. More importantly, you are so much at peace with yourself. Also, you can swim so thats a bonus. We might or might not talk again, but know that your essence is going to live with me in my head. Go change a few more lives brother. <3

Adane Sahil Ravindra : Bro! I don't know what to say. I have never met anyone like you with such love and patience for everyone. Your drive to always help people, often at the expense of your own well-being is something I will try to imbibe. Please take care of yourself because when you are happy, people around you gain a lot. This last year has been wonderful with you. It has been so much fun being inappropriately weird with you, because slowly you got more comfortable with me. Will always remember the lungi day, my complaints about your soapcase, the joy on your face when I ate your muesli... so many memories. Please stay in touch, I will miss seeing you wash our hands so often and don't forget the fight bet xD

Chigicherla Venkata Sai Prasanna : I used to observe you in H8 mess and corridors but took me end of sem 2 to talk to you. Then the two days at ICTS gave me opportunity to talk and know about you. Samarth your Serene, Pious , caring nature .....( you have got all those positive virtues Samarth ) always inspired me. I can never forget the moral support and valuable suggestions you gave me when I felt low or uncertain of anything. I am sure one day I will be proudly telling everyone that I studied with Samarth at iitb.

Edwin Saji Uthuppan : Dude, I just LOVE talking to you man. Your love for malayalam and its old movies helps bring up nostalgia man. You have your demons and I wish you luck in overcoming them. But you never have let it show. You are seriously fun to be around. And you are the best drunk ever( ;) its our little secret that you drink)

Ahsan Aslam : Hey man..we only have had interaction during the occasional meeting due to which I can't fill up this entry but I just can't let it slide.You were there when I was in hospital after the accident and your words and quirky accent always makes me smile.You have a positive energy surrounding you.I really wished you were in my department so we could have spent more time together.I'll keep in touch bro! Godspeed.
