Apurv Tiwari : You can't imagine a Varun Sule without being reminded of a small cute teddy bear. My best memory is deliberately tumhein thoda sa pareshan karna because the reaction is so funny and adorable at the same time :P Stay in touch teddy <3

Shubham Punjabi : Though I said ki iss platform pe likhne se acha hai dm kardu but still here we are. No matter we have lived in either same wings or different wings , you have always been my 1am, 2am, 3 am...an all hour friend. Gossip sessions in Room no. 145 to waging wars in aero group😂, we have literally done everything together (Even rejection from MI). The most awesome (basically boring) stories from my life will always be reserved for Sule. Still, abhi take Mujhe thanks nahi mila yaar terse for you know what😂(I hope you were less thankless 😊). Remember me when you reach HBS though, I may turn out to be your senior there😂(jk)

Shruti Iwanati : Will miss you and Kothari fighting :P Insight, intern, placements, acads sab machata hai banda Still badi badi dhamki di hai logo ko tune. Yaad hai "Chai with Sule" karke apan show banane wale they :P. Terese bhi kaafi help li hai assignments ki so thanks bro. Best of luck and stay in touch!!!

Krishna Wadhwani : Varun, from one optiboi to another. Being called dependable by you means so much! Likewise I need to thank you for the Aero Courses 😊. We played every minute of that department football match for you man♥. Not being able to bitch might have been a small price for the possible repercussions that we did not know then😂. Also, Team OptiBois will go down in the Hall of Fame of course project teams. Keep rocking and doing brilliantly it as you always have ♥.

Patel Sayan : Sounds of the nation suna hai?

Saman Siddiqui : Varun <3 You amazing superhero! The guy who always got everything done and still took out the time to be with me. You are literally the kindest person I know. You weren't just my co-Chief Ed, you were one of my closest friends. We could be having heated discussions a min ago, and sharing deep dark secrets the next. You're family and you will always be. You've had my back and understood me on days when no one else could. You worked harder than anyone else and kept all the secrets <3 You're a beautiful person Sule and working with you was the best experience! I wish it had never ended, though I know and pray that we never stop being this close! Love you <3

Kirtesh Ajay Gadiya : Well RC plane in the first year. Mulund-Thane connect! You know one of my wierd things which I did in freshie year. Thanks for approving my post in IDF. All the best!

Lovesh Gupta : Aapko senti to maine kuch din pahle likhi thi. Vo yha nhi likh sakta :P. How do you have so much knowledge about everything and a perfect answer to all my questions? I always wonder Itna sab kaise manage kar liya. Insight, DR, Placement (aur much bhi tha kya?). I wish we were in the same batch. Ek complain bhi h, DM. A virtual hug from Saman and me both <3

Pujan Biswas : Sheldon said "Nobody likes a Know-it-all". You proved him wrong. You have read books more than I have ever heard of. From the Eplc room-knocks , you storming in my room to the teddy bear on your birthday and GoT standoffs, this has absolutely been one hell of a ride. Waise, tu pole jaise kyun sota hai be , I wish more of the room intrusions were possible, unless GSB begs you to get in, fir kaise bachega! Silent goss is your thing and I gotta learn some of it. I have and will always respect your tremendous grasping ability and intellect while you keep rubbing your eyes like Pooh! From a Targaryen to a Stark, Bisso!

Jinay Patel : Sule, as I say you are the weirdest person I have ever met. Itna quora padhte hua mene kisiko nhi dekha. Will miss those LCH nights before the midsem/endsem, will miss your fights/arguments with kothari, will miss Sunyaev-Zel'dovich effect , will miss ITSP (pujan paise deed yaar:(). Also, tereko insti ke har ek Cheez ke baare me bta hota hai, kaise? Bhul mat Jana. Stay connected :)

Ayush Dubey : Well our major interactions took place on 16A 6th floor in our freshie year. I didn't know at that time you were going to be such a humble DR 1. Being in the same lab group that sem gave me great grades in both the labs 😊. The most important thing from your side for me has been the evening of Day 1 when you motivated me enough to sit for all interviews and give my best when I was convinced to go directly for off campus. Thanks a lot for that! I know that you'll achieve great heights wherever you choose to go!

Abhishek Rawat : Lord Varys of IITB.....Sulee yaar jitna mazza tereko chidane mei aaya utna hee mazza tere saath punjabi aur uske PORs ko diss krne mei aaya.....You were my easy target for triggering but you were the best sport during all the time.....I wish apan freshie year mei hee dost ban jaatey toh punjabi ki thodi aur lelete.....Bina tere wing mei aaye woh mazza nahi aata thha na naye gossips pata chalte thhe....Last k din bhi apanne bahut mazze kiye especially teri fast bowling in the corridors..... Kothari k saath milke tere rumors fellana bhi ek art thha..... Really gonna miss your storming off after getting pissed and then re-appearing again after two minutes.....Ek baar milte hai corona virus k baad aur discuss krte h punjabi ki aur cringy baato ki. Miss you broo

Purushottam Kumar Sahu : Dear Varun, Thanks for your support and encouragement in numerous instances during the past one year. The foremost being the handing over party :D :D and all the other experiences I got under the insight. On the eve of farewell, I'll pray for your peace, prosperity and happiness. Two warm and loving souls like you two deserves all the nice things in life.

Yash Kothari : Bhai Sule, pehle to mujhe itna jhelne ke liye I can't thank you enough. I know I troubled you a lot right from the first sem until the last day in insti but I am still saying that I did not write on the wall which lead to the famous '3 thappad x 2' incident :p. Tu jitna irritate yaa gussa ho jaata tha utna hi jaldi sab bhulke normal bhi jaata tha and isiliye we could stay as close friends like we are now. I am going to miss those closed room discussions so badly about the topic that interested you the most(you know what is it). Aur Gossip Queen to tu hai hi. Acads aur baaki life me machaana to teri aadat hi hai to usme to kya hi bolu but haan, mere itne doubts solve karne ke liye thanks. Aur saale exam se 2 ghante pehle Quora padhnaa kaise manage kar letaa hai bhai. But hands down you are the best room mate I could have ever asked for. Aur haan yaar, agle saal aur aane waale saalo me milte rehnaa.

Atharva Khandait : Dude, the H16 days definitely don't feel like 3 years in the past. Bohot GPL khai hai tu bhagne par, bas ek baar haat lag jaata :p. I remember those door-banging incidents and how you went to take revenge once and ended up getting recorded in the funniest possible way xD. Also, SLAPGATE! :D :D I am just thankful to have witnessed it live. But seriously, you're one of the most diligent and consistent people I know. I'm sure that you'll be among the best at whatever you do. Recently, I tried to convince you to ask her to prom, but sadly it didn't work, hope that works out for ya :p Saman lene jaenge tab ek-ek drink to banti hai :D

Soham De : Teddyyy...Fionaaaaa.....(aur bhejo mujhe anti Hippopotamus posts :p) It was an amazing experience working in your Insight Chief Ed tenure and the occasional Lit Club events (which you sometimes graced :p) Kabhi kabhi you take things personally and then maayus ho jaate ho but you are kaafi friendly and an amazing person to be friends with. Best wishes for your future, and Lit Convo Treat and Insight ka kuch treats ho toh milte next.

Mayank Sultania : Yaha space kam parega agar puri kahani likhu toh. Tune jo kiya hai bhai voh toh yaad rhega, meri reach kafi badh gyi teri wajah se, lol! Tune kya nhi kiya, wifi name and password, room ke walls pe likhna, and so on. But sach mein kafi respect as you are extremely talented and hardworking. You will become very successful but yaad pls gussa matt hua kar itni jaldi. Last sem mein toh nhi hui apni batein itni jyada but right from the 2nd year kafi chize apan dono ko pata hai ek dusre ki (I know till level 1). Aise hi bottle pehkte rhna baat baat pe and apan charo milte hai kabhi!!

Bhatt Maulik Chunilal : Sule sir, a hello from a person jisne aapko infi pareshan kiya hain life mai. Uske liye sorry toh kabhi bolunga lekin I hope aapne mujhe already maaf kar diya hoga. 😊 To be honest, tumko pareshan sirf isliye karta kyun ki tum kabhi bura nahin maante. Lekin darta bhi bahot hu aapse. Kaisi dangerous dhamkiyaan de dete ho kabhi kabhi 🤔. Yaar tu itna kaise manage kar leta tha life mai. Acads mai toh macha hain hi. POR mai bhi aur Intern and job mai bhi. Upar se har cheez ki knowledge hoti hain. Chalta firta encyclopedia hain tu. Fir bhi itna humble reh leta hain. Actually, tu humble itna bhi nahin hain lekin itna cute hain ki humble apne aap lag jata hain xD. BTW first year mai saath mai parbhu sir project mai jo hugga vo kabhi nahin bhul paayenge. Aur haan third year mai lab mai Ankit saath jo ladaiyaan karta tha usme infi maza aata tha. Thanks for always helping with my resumes and SOPs. Endsem se pehle doubts leke bhi tere pass hi aana hota tha 🙏. Will always miss running and small hikes to Sameer hill with you. Tu toh mumbai mai hi rahega. Milne aate rehna insti mai. Weekends mai sath mai trekking ke liye bhi chal lena. Your transformation during this sem is simply awesome. Will always miss you yaar 💖

Tushar Kumar : Heya! Master of whisperer. It has been exciting knowing you and most important the journey we have traversed working together. Let's keep our endless conversations on GOT, war, movies and your recent found interest of eco eternal. Thanks a lot for helping me and giving pep talk every time I reached you and listening to my enrage about pete :p. The amount of passion you infuse in work is really inspiring. Aise hi machate raho and kabhi teach me how to garner secrets and whispers of the meets of higher echelons. Stay in touch always and keep sharing elusive recipes of success!

Shubham Kalpande : After messing stuff terribly till midsem and then getting an AA, ye toh Sule ke baaye haath ka khel hai. You are such a helping and humble human! 700 characters will fall short if I were to describe all your qualities. You are the example that for being a DR1, you dont need to be a maggu rather all you need to be is kind, sweet and simple. You are just excellent at anything you do. I couldnt even imagine how a DR1 can handle a big POR with sheer brilliance and stay connected with all the batch-mates, until you showed it how! May you reach great heights of success and have a terrific life. It was a privilege to have shared classrooms and labs with you.

Sriganesh N : I won't tell anyone that we used to grow those plants together. You are one of the most sensible people I have seen in insti. In all our discussions, what you know, you know solidly well & what you don't, you are willing to learn. And I think u should take personal criticism more sportively (even this xD). Tere harkaton se tu ne wing me sabko bahut entertain kiya hai. I hope tu shyness overcome karega aur tera love marriage karne ka sapna pura hoga. And your flair for trading gossip! You brighten the mood of those around u when you are in good spirits. Wish you all the best for your future, aur Mumbai me milte rahenge..

Arjun Rahar : Sule God 🙏! We interacted properly after coming into h4 only and then we were set for 3 years, no downs in our friendship 😊. Our wing used to feel dull in your absence (in 4th yr). You were a good source of information specially when someone used to spread false rumours, you always presented the truth. Saw you working very hard for placement and was very happy when you got placed. I will miss you after graduation 😊❤️

Pulkit Jain : Hmm kya hi likhu ye likhu ki aap bahut chill senior the ya ye likhu aap bahut supportive the. Honestly jitna apne and saman nai mujhe jhela h utna to mai apni council to nahi jhel pata. Jab hamari bbc ki meets hoti thi to mujhe hamesha aisa lagta tha ki aap meri side ho :P. Yaar apke sath ek bar bahar jana tha, ek akhri bar (of course apke paise se :P :P) Lets see milte phir mauka mila to Hope to see you again..

Siddharth Mehta : Yo Varun! You know, it's really saddening how the entire Fantastic Four was in the same tuts in freshmen year and yet we weren't that close then. Gonna regret that. But the 1+ year I got to work with you has been amazing and memorable. Since the tenure is over, I don't mind confessing that one of my favorite pass times in meets and interviews was spotting the perfect calm on your smiling face that came right before you were about to obliterate someone's argument with your response. You're quite a persistent and inspirational leader. Let's keep in touch and keep rocking!

Vipul Ramtekkar : Varoon, its soo much fun talking to you. You have soo much knowledge about everything. Extremely well read and very smart to say the very least. All the board meets were so much fun along with all the outings! However engrossed you might be, but when theres some interesting piece of information being discussed you have sule's full attention. Let's keep meeting in the future as well.

Namita Soni : Sule, you are soo cute (I'm actually jealous 😊) and very humble (I mean it). There are so many memories, that chem lab experiment, fake e-mail, sharing lab reports in 3rd year, lch study time, anand stall, juhu, alibaug trip, Holi, group pe 4am discussions. Thank you so much for solving my doubts patiently and your help in learning (not exactly) swimming 😊. I really admire the way you manage everything and still find time for your friends. Mere insta stories pe hamesha sarcastic replies krne k liye bhi thanks 😊 Stay in touch, uss group pe aise hi discussions krte rahenge 😊 aur mujhe abhi bhi lgta hai ki meri height jyada hai tere se 😊 P. S. Tussi ja rhe ho, tussi na jao 🥰❤

Akshat Raj Lad : Funny how we've met most no. of times while brushing in the night (I used to go for it so late, 2-3 AM types, fir bhi XD). You've been an amazing senior, Varun. Aise hi machate raho.

Aditya Chalishazar : Hello. Thanks for all the interactions over the course of the previous year! All the best for whatever is to come! :)

I always felt ki you understood a lot more of the topics I talked about than me but never made me feel inferior. Thanks for giving your inputs on topics. Tere se milke kaafi accha lagta tha!!

Cherub Kapoor : Hi Teddy :))) Calm and composed. These are the two words that come to my head aapke naam se. You've always remained on the top of things, and you make things seem like they're super easy and smooth. Super thankful to you for being there for me from my semex jaana chahiye kya to my case prep karado pls :p Sooo happy that I met you :)

Nithin Kumar : Varun🔥 Man, there's always an unsaid respect for all things you. It's very easy to lose your competitive spirit in this liar of opportunity but few people help. Even fewer study with you about the stars and their limits. I definitely might've pushed the limits and tested it multiple times but it just has hardened the rubber. I definitely don't want to get rid of you soon. hugs P.S. We four and us five have treats pending.🔥💙

Ganesh Chelluboyina : Hey Varun! I remember when we first talked at H2 lounge before you became ChiefEd. It was indeed a pleasant starting point, and I liked how you were so keen and honest, intently listening. I knew Insight would go places with you at the helm. I really appreciate you being there with me until Biodiversity was finally done and dusted- I can imagine the leap of faith it must have been to repose such confidence in me. I wish I could know you better- even before corona, our interactions in the final year were mostly in the virtual space! I hope we can meet each other again soon. All the best with everything ahead!

And it always amazes me how you seem to know every relevant information about any and every matter! Thanks for bearing with the not-so-productive editor :p

Arjav Shah : Hey Sule! We got to know each other during Jinay's GPL in the 1st year. Got back in touch during our convener tenure and then of course, the internship season case-prep :P You've come across as a very humble, kind and sweet person! I am glad we could interact more often in the last year. You've been doing great things in the institute and am sure that you'll continue to do so in the future! Best wishes, mate & hope to stay connected. Cheers!

Kushal P Yadav : Are Sule! Can't imagine I didn't write something for you xD. Still remember we talked for the first time during freshie year MI, and waha bhi you were talking about CPI xD. Nice to see you finally became DR1 from there :p Well we should have got an opportunity to work together quite earlier, but Insight me kaam karna was good enough! All the best for your future endeavours Teddy :p

Aniket Bhatia : Can't forget the wing rep or whatever they used to call it! I love how you'd want to know other people's crushes xD. Tere bina vo first year ka wing adhoora lagta... You're still a kid at heart :). Keep up the hardwork and all the best!! Bas thoda gussa kum hoaya kar :P

I had no idea mai 2nd year me kataata tha (except for posters and German classes and sometimes events and maybe setting things, but yaar "elec ka 3rd sem"), but somehow i still managed to be jibi's fav con 😊. I'm not sure what is more unforgivable - chiefed banke goss nahi dena ya fir bhandardara trip. Maybe agar aero me hota toh chal leta 😊. One thing I'll never forget though - your trademark style of pacing around 😊. This message will be deleted in T-5 seconds. PS - Reddit ka username kab batayega?

Silu Panda : Hi Varun, You are a mirthful and reliable person. I am glad that our paths crossed in insti (I hope it has not been so painful for you). Stay as calm and understanding person as you are.

Anirudh Mittal : Hey Lit club convener from Aero! We played some board game in the very first week of my freshie year and then snatch at SOM couple of times but still we have been interacting for like 3-4 hrs/semester starting from my freshie year to your last semester and you have managed to make me feel comfortable to message you any time for anything. :) I definitely feel chill but also nervous for some reason while talking to you xD I hope we maintain our interaction rate even after you graduate. And we should definitely hang out once more before you leave. I don't know...maybe play snatch or some random board game? <3 #GettinGoodAtSenti Naman Aggarwal : Hey Soorhe! Measurements Lab was epic, I learnt a few Marathi pick up lines, thanks to you and Vikram!
