Mudita Rana : Hello next door neighbor ♥ I'm gonna miss the days when you'd open the door in your sleep, only to miss the class and sleep again! And the yearssss taken to clean your room 😭😭😭 thanks for letting me cry on your shoulder whenever I wanted to (countless times 😭). To know how much I'll miss you just ask Google, you'll get your answer :p lots more leg pulling and arguing with you is left!!

Aayushi Baheti : There's a lot that has changed since freshie year, apart from your huge weight loss and 'no bezatti on the face' thing, but what stayed the same is our fighting and caring for each other. I will always remember crying over those S1-S2 disparities and studying all night for Bellare's exam only to just pass :( You are one of the most ambitious girls I have ever met and, your hunger to strive for more motivates me to work harder. Wishing you lots of oreo, kakri, strawberries and aloo. With love, karela <3 Mrunmayi Mungekar : Hello Rishiii! Thanks for being the sweet darling throughout! Jisne mera har stupid sa rona jhela ho, day or night <3 I am not sorry though :P considering how much effort we had to put in to make you eat or sleep or you know many things !!! I mean how can somebody down a whole jar of nutella and watch random tv soaps at 3 am and still not be a walking-zombieeee...I must grudgingly accept your determination of ploughing through brick walls though (metaphorically, please don't try it!) And please (unlike usual : ( ) daatna nahiii...coz I am gonna say it anyway - Lurvuvv u!!!

Veerupaksh Singla : Here's to the awkward conversations jo revisit karne me bhi cringe hota hai 😂🙄. Wo last year summer starting waali chats to mai print karke frame karake rakhne waala hu apne saath. Our friendship is kaafi unusual, and I'll always remember the amazing comebacks 😊. You might want to kill me for this but 'whatever happens, happens for good'! Kitni bhi gaali de dena but bhulna mat kabhi. Namaste!

Risha Agarwal : Dear Rishika, From first year to today, the amount of hardwork you do, the dedication you show, your hunger for always taking out the best inside of you, be it sports, academics, or even life, has always inspired me. The day in the TT hall when you kept playing matches one after the other until you finally won inspires me till date. I love how we would discuss dresses and earrings and eyeliners and haircare when you lived beside, and I'm so so so glad that the games night w you happened before insti abruptly ended. Be your own queen and keep slaying it like you always do, mam 💖

Abhinav Jain : Agle janam mohe Panda hi kijo... nuff said :p

Samruddhi Dodal : Yo! Still remember those tmm days so well :D You had never worked for ecell before and I was told to think well before getting you for tmm but it turned out to be one of the best decisions :) I have seen your commitment towards everything you do, be it TT, ECell, coding, and I have learnt so much from you. Aise hi machate rehna, stay in touch, and I know you will keep making me proud :) <3

Swarali Ghodkhande : Ruuushheekaaa Madam!!! I am soo gonna miss your ranting, our gossip sessions, that smile of yours, random discussions and what not. Agar tu nahi rahegi toh main kisse ladungi :P; koun mere room aake bolega "Swarali, aaj raat yahi so jau", koun mere fruits and chivda Kha jayega; koun mujhe itna life ka ghyan dega; koun mere tops lejayega :( Right from first year you have been my pillar of strength and I know you will always be one. Despite the fact that you scold a lot, you have the kindest heart. Please stay the same and keep slaying. Love you loads <3

Binayak Sahu : Hi RG, wouldn't write much. The one who keeps saying thank you, oops sorry all the time, camping in lch well before exams, carrying tons of chocolates and wafers in her bag, truly non-judgemental person, true hater of ChemE, always having past years papers with her, semi serious-semi funny, ambivert,.. Baki phir kabhi, long list P. S : Number of treats pending

Ashi Gupta : Buddy, I have not seen a person with such dedication level, commitment and fighting spirit♥! I have seen you managing your time right from freshie year! For 10th position in first year ki crossy me to week nightouts in exam. You have changed a lot! Especially food habit in last year! I admire how you observe good habits of people and adopt them. Be as cheerful as you are♥♥

Tanya Gupta : Rishikaaa! I am so thankful I met you xD. From listening to your anxiety regarding MA quizzes in first year (xD xD) to sharing anxieties regarding our futures we have come a long way! Completing two minors while acing inter-IIT Table tennis and being there for your friends is something only you could have done. You have this ability to be fun and serious depending on the situation and I am really thankful for all your support and motivation (especially during those disastrous placement times :P) Watching movies and going for drinks is always fun with you since you somehow always have a game in mind for us to play! Lets keep playing connect and Pictionary and being this amazing team who wins always :P Sorry about the trips though I do wish we could have gone on one! Why is the DD project being mentioned in my yearbook xD xD Itna rant kiya kya maine?? All the best for achieving everything you set your eyes on in the future :D Let's videocall tomorrow? (See this is so cool because everytime you see the yearbook we can videocall the next day xD)

Shradha Bansal : Hii didi! Thanks for being the most awesome mentor, for helping me get through some really difficult situations and chit-chatting with me whenever I bumped into you in the mess. I just love your cheerful, helpful and pure-hearted nature. Sorry for having to listen to my stupid problems every now and then. All the best and stay the same. P.S.: Me aapko hamesha didi hi bolungi:)

Viraj Singh Parihar : Forever Moti♥😂. I guess we got to know each other in this lockdown period is more than the combined insti life. You are the only one jisse maine Salsa Night ke liye pucha tha. And thanks 2 baar salsa chalne ke liye, XD😂. 1st year and convener memories are fun. I just wished we could have interacted more in the last 2 years. Your birthday wish video is still the best♥. You have gone to Inter IIT 4 times be♥. Madras and Guwahati were good times😂. You had promised me once to teach TT, but then it never happened. I just hope we can meet once before you enroute to Hyderabad, as this time we will be genuinely meeting each other without any hesitation😂. Your infi treats are still pending. We shall continue to have our meaningful conversations, and sharing some gossips too. Thanks for playing that 5 rapid fire questions game and giving all wrong answers😂. All the very best for your future ♥. Please stay connected.

Rishabh Agrawal : Yooo Rishika !! Ab IEOR ke notes kaun jugad ke dega meko 😂. Though ab Dept. TT open jeetne ke chances jyada honge but those sleepless nights before minor exams will always be there in my memories 😂. Thank you for everything ♥♥.

Abhay Tomar : Hey Rishika. Well our first encounter in the first year wasn't really good (at least from my side) and I have forever been embarrassed about it 😂. I even asked you about it during the handing over 😂🙄. But really tere aur Kushal ke Saath tenure bhot Sahi tha. Ham dono to Kabhi Kabhi jhak maar lete the but jab tak Tu prof Dr baat Nahi Karti thi tab tak vo convince hi Nahi hote the :p. I hope Jane se pehele abhi ek Baar aur dept me udham macha ke jayenge 😂

Raghav Goyal : Hi Rishika! or I'd say hi rish!! <3 first things first! pehle din toh mast BT krwaya tha yr! Chap chap ek taraf...you were like "mujhe padhna ha.. :|" haha! Bhai BT hogyi thi uss time toh :p But yeah, we've come a long long way from there isn't it? I still remember yr, those long walks, discussing about life, me telling you all my stories :p legit all of them! Maddu mess, SOM well! We've created so many memories! And ha ofc! Chem ka chutiya and profs. ki bitching toh was a constant! Yr legit, intern k time par you gave me a lot of support, i guess we had each other's back! Rish you are one of the sweetest and the nicest people I've met <3 I wish we could have spent more time together :/ <3

Nutan Megu : iib girls group is where i knw u from mostly..we never interacted much but u r a kind person i knw taht... a smart one taht too. wish u success and health for future

Kushal Mittal : Hey self proclaimed bestest co :p It's been so much fun working with you for the past year. Taking interviews, talking to profs and a lot more wouldn't have been possible without you <3 I have not seen anyone so hardworking and ambitious matlab itne saare courses kaun leta hai aur uske saath tt, por aur bauhat kuch and sab mai machaya tune hats off. You are such a fabulous and caring person. Thanks for all those pani puri and bhel puri and thanks for never saving me any nutella :( A jamshedpuri correcting my pronunciation hurted a lot xD jk. I have got to learn a lot from you, stay as amazing and helping as you are and please do stay in touch. Jald hi milenge, aapki daadi umma waali daant ya

Jovina Vaswani : Once a friend saw your nickname on my phone screen, and asked, "How do you know she is the "best roomie" when you have not stayed with anyone else?". And i said, "I just do". I do not think anybody would have stayed with me for years as a roommate and still like me. Tere side ka room kitna organized rehta tha, and mere side toh lagta tha storm a gaya hai😂😂. I think that was the state of the inside of our heads too. Being totally different people, we somehow still managed to make things work and stay, and sometimes cry too😭. We have seen a lot together, and we somehow pulled through, and today, I am proud of having you in my life. And I want to retain that feeling forever. 🥹🥹

Kshitij Sovanee : You have always been the strength of the table tennis team! Its unfortunate i got to know you so late, but it was a great experience! Wish you the very best of luck for your future!

Nisha Brahmankar : Rishikaa!! I had a wonderful time working with you. I love your workaholic nature. I regret not being the one to accompany you meeting Ajeet Khurana :p Those days were so much fun. Stay the selfless, cooperative and optimistic person as you are :) All the very best for your successful future! #TTMM forever <3

Pranil Jain : Rishika aka Maggu max. NSO TT main mile the, and uske baad se aaj tak relations itne dramatic rahe hain humare ki tu bole toh ek picture banwalen ispar :P Kya ambitious and strong ladki hai bey tu. Humesha apna best degi fir chahe woh kuch bhi ho. Sab kuch chahiye teko and you never fail to earn it! Thankyou so much for always being there for me. Teri life main kuch bhi chal raha ho, saamne wale ki care karna nahi chodti. Tera sketch aaj bhi sambha ke rakha hai maine. Malaal rahega is baat ka ki thoda jyada time spend karlete par chalo koi na, Hyderabad door kahan hai. Milte hain karachi bakery par, games taiyaar rakhna. Baaki baat yaad rakhna meri, chahe kuch bhi ho, you can count on me.

Kumar Saunack : I did see you a lot more in the CS department than the number of times you saw me in Chemical (which was none, btw). You've got a pure CS job now, so I don't think you'll have to search outside your department anymore.

Although the times we met in college were far few and between, there never was an issue talking to you. Based on the other responses in the yearbook, all the credit is yours :p

Akshay Bhamare : Yo Rishika! ham log ek lab subgroup me the tab se jaanta hu. bahut saare courses padhe hain sath me LHC me. kisi senior ke moodle se last year papers, course material jugad lati thi tu XD Exam ke pahale sab log pass hone ke liye ratate the but many a times you would ask some really good conceptual questions and I have always liked that about you. sem starting me it was always relieving to know that someone else has taken too many credits too :P Tere coding enthu ke liye respect hain _/_ You are smart, hardworking, humble, caring, sweet person and a very good friend, always be the same. All the best Codess!!! stay in touch <3

Shubhankar Mihir Seth : Hey Rishika, we got to know each other through Priyanshi, before doing our convener tenure (and all its treats XD). And then I had the privilege of having you on the SMP team over a very memorable tenure. Over the past year, I've come to realize how everything I'd heard about you was so true, and just how kind, dedicated and dependable you were. You've accomplished some terrific stuff in insti, and I really hope there are much bigger things in store. Take care and stay in touch!

Arjav Shah : "Plots ban gaye kya, ma'am?" ;- ) I'm gonna miss you not only as the best lab partner, but as an amazing friend who always had her life sorted and was always there to support! Thanks for being that constant during the 4 crazy ChemE labs! I think in the end those thousand lunches sacrificed for reports were all worth it! Weren't they? :) Will badly miss those 'None's, scoldings and please don't stop your GIF lessons! Those 2 lunch outings were very enjoyable and so was your weird game xD "Relax! You need a break" will always echo in my mind and don't seize to inspire. I'm sure you'll keep yourself sorted this way forever! Here's hoping we stay in touch and our paths cross again! Yours, Arjav

R Sucheta : Rishiiiiii, I met you through Jovi, jo hamesha teri tareef karti hai :) You are the most down-to-earth person I have met, room pe itne saare medals pade rehte hai and you are like, "Arrey, yeh sab kuch khaas nahi hai" -_- Sure sure! My mom still admires you so much for that namasthe XD From jovi's roomie to WnCC to DAMPCos, we have come a long way and you never fail to amaze me! Aise hi machate rehna life me. Ab Hyderabad aayegi na? Lets catch up ;*

Mukul Jangid : Dear Pishika/humare first year group ki smarty, hostel events ke naam pe shyd pehli baar acche se mile the. Phir aapne jo diwali pooja karwaane mein lead li, mein samjh gya yeah ladki bohot machane waali hai aage jaake 😊. Uss saal ke baad toh buss LASIK ke doubts ki hi baatein hui apni. I still remeber jo tune mujhe mere 3rd year resume ka reality check diya tha uske baad kitni mehnat ki meine uspe. Thanks for that. Sorry that I left you alone in 611 course but utni padhai hum nahi kar sakte. As a compensation let's do another MAC trip together ❤️ (mostly next year 🙏)

Praveen Saran : Ma'am aap ke bare mai kya hi likhu. I still remember the first meet with you & Nisha when I was like pta nhi kya hoga. Lekin kise pta tha we would make the best team ever < 3. Sorry yrr tere carwash wale startup ko funding nhi mili :(( (this one to continue our legacy of taunts :)). And vo Khurana ke sath wali Starbucks meet yaad hai? Lol. But seriously, bhut kuch sikha hai tere sath kaam krke. You're the perfect combination of smartness and dedication. #TTMM forever < 3

Abhishek Rawat : Rishika lol u have come a long way from pogo sense of humor to dank memes xD...Iska thoda credit toh mai lunga hee..Your welcome for letting you win that roast game we had in which I could have easily destroyed you xD....Tune itni baar hame almost marwaya hai na second bench pe bethke pagalo ki tarah haske xD..First person in insti to love WWE as much as I do...Hamesha ese machate rehna microsoft, bass thode apne jokes bhi improve krle aur touch mei rehna hamesha. I hope tere carrier goals fulfill ho jald hi. It was always fun celebrating back to back birthdays. Whenever possible kindly meet me soon ♥Bye moti xD

Kumar Saurav : Well, sorry for spoiling your kurta - but you'll have to admit that it made the day so much more colourful and lively. And given that you accused Saunack of the crime, let's just both call it even 😊.

Ankit Neema : Hello hi!! 😊 Thank you for being an awesome friend ♥. It was amazing to see how you've managed excessive course loads with TT so well, a lot to learn from you. Tbh, late replies never annoyed me (joking 😊) and although less in number but our outings were great! I wish you a very bright future and stay connected always ♥

Sarthak Sharma : Hey Regina Phalange! Thanks for helping me out on a numerous occasions during those study sessions in LCH! I know we didn't interact that much but I'm glad that in the final semester we discovered about our common interests in shows and movies. So keep sending those targeted memes and videos ! And I'll keep promoting a new show/series.

Satyam Mohla : I am having a hard time recollecting how did we get started? but let it be, do beginnings really matter? Or is it the journey that is important? You're an awesome young lady with ferocious will to just be great at everything, and I have told you this before you're going to have everything that you want in life. Stick to your goals and journey. I am just glad that I could play a role in it. More of bakar from now on about this, that, everything. This going without saying, stay in touch, now that we're out of insti, more than ever.

Prashit Jain : Even I dont remember how did we become friends but since then it has been a fun ride. I'll miss those walks, random dine outs, those games you want to play during dining and the many many games we played in h10. You trying to make a nice sarcastic coment and failing badly at it. Tere khaane peene ka dhyan rakhne mai bhot haalat kharab hui hai meri!!! Also i will advice you to control yourself and not to repeat incidents like " Gurukripa" and "Apna Dhaba" 😊. P.S - It's not necessary sabko enamel pta ho 😊😊
