Computer Science & Engineering

Kumar Saunack : I don't remember the first time we met or started talking. It was sometime around 3rd semester, I believe. Although you already had a foot in the group via Teja and Manoj, it was still surprising to see you become absorbed in the wing. And you are one of the rare people who doesn't cry, so it's good talking with you. I'd still like to play another badminton match with you. I need to even the record in my favor.

Shubham Anand : Our journey started from first year when you would come to meet your gulti friends and to play baddy (when you took my racket too lol). After that you kind of became a core member of our wing. You are one of the most honest guy and said whatever came to your mind which we often used to make fun of. We used to tease you the most, which I hope you will remember forever. You did some actions which I don't know why but were damn funny (me and shreyas observed them haha). And kitna sota hai yaar tu? Kabhi bhi kahi bhi so jaata tha. Will remember our time in singapore and learning baddy from you. Congrats for 44 lacs and all the best for future!

Shreyas Pimpalgaonkar : I don't understand how we are doing this, but being on the phone at least 8 hours everyday with one person is something I have never done!! Have always loved disturbing you. Your thought process is very streamlined, also your ability to sleep almost instantly anywhere is a gift from god, and of course you do highly efficient work! so you better be not reading this and working cause we have a damn deadline. Thanks for being so chill :)

Naman Jain : Yo satwick. Firstly freshie year mein tere laptop ki already broken screen ko aur break krne ke liye sorry. Kaafi chill and helpful h bey tu, and it's great irritating you. Tere hypersomnia-insomnia cycles mast hote h. Enjoy kr and well GRE prep krta rh.

2020

Sunchu Rohit : Hey Sathvik! Sorry for all the trouble I've caused man! You've been very helpful throughout. Remember Mood I 2017 where we somehow sneaked into Biswa's standup :p ? I wish I had the sleeping powers you have! All the best for your future!

Aman Jain : Tujhe itni hindi isiliye sikhayi thi taaki teri yearbook me English me na likhna pade xD. Tu hi to tha jo har baar mujhpe daya karke exams ke pehle padha deta tha, aur assignments kara deta tha. Meri degree pe tera aadha haq to hai bhai sahi me.

Manoj Middepogu : yo pimples, u will be one of my best friends. calm, straight-forward, reckless, memory-loss(improved over 4 yrs, thanks to god), these are the tags that describe you imo. watched netflix all along the first half and planned everything for second half of last sem and see what happened 😊. Many memories of last night studies esp u watching bahubali before economics quiz correct me if i'm wrong later, our struggle in graph theory, DB lab project, many...you changed a lot from first sem to now in a good way. show some anger if someone teases you 😊. stay safe and (keep in t..)🙏, no need to mention such obv things right!!

Sharath Chandra Ale : Rey Saathu! You are my accidental good friend. Manam mundu eppud kalisamo teled kaani, aa Mahabaleshwar trip brought us together. The way you talk honestly makes you approachable any time. Nen ninnu enta egatali chesina, you dont keep grudges, the best thing. Appud appud konchem mana human world lo kuda undu ra. Nee lokam lo nuvv eppudu undedhe ga. And sorry(thanks) for that Badminton rackets :P
