Samruddhi Dodal : Jordyy! I remember seeing you first time in MI room in your freshie year and then during our Summit and grow to the person you were this year's. Alag level dedication and always always being there for everyone. Had some great times with you, hope you continue growing and we catch up soon :D

Kosuri Sandeep : Yo jyothi!!! Tell me one think that you dont do.. Life mein sab try karta hai tu... Agar tu nahi hai tho H4 gyra performances mein stunts keliye points kaha milti... I was the one who knocks your door and run away && close your door from outside 😊😊... The way you handled the work load during summit was really awesome... Also, the way you ensure that your course of actions shouldn't affect others signifies your ethical values. Abhi mereko peeche se kaun peetega, gaali kaun dega, jokes kaun sunayega. Will surely miss you bro 😞. Aisa hi life mein machate rehna... Milte rahenge bro!!

Umang Chhawchharia : Joran please yeh logo thoda aur bada karde :p. Jordan chal chai peene chalte hai. Jordan catan khelte hai. Tere room pe bin baulaye aa jaana - kitni yaadein hai tere saath. Dude tu meri jaan hai. One of the most hardworking and sincere person I have ever met. Always the goto person for everyone in the team for literally anything. That is a true testament of your maturity and kind nature. Have some more confidence in yourself and you can do wonders. Always stay in touch :)

Rashi Gupta : From acquaintances, to inspiration, to cold enemies, to (good?) friends! You are the most special person in my college life! 💜 We haven't been the best Co's, but we surely had each other's back!! You were my unspoken support system, that I knew would handle shit when I falter, and you did! There a lot of memories we will make together, coz we missed out on them when we had the chance!!! Someone rightly said, endings are just new beginnings! Cheers to the beginning of our never-ending friendship, and a lot of bakchodi!!! 🎉 Never thought I'd say it to you, but here we go... I PURPLE YOU 💜💜💜
