Gautam Sharma : Hamara sabka Pu!!! Gautam, yeh ISCP ki guidelines hai. Yeh toh karna hi padega. Tumko chalegana. HAHAAHHAAH!!! Fantastic. Keep smiling like you do!!! Best wishes!! God bless her!!!

Krutika Talegaonkar : Hey Pokemon !!! My first Marathi friend ever!!! We as PKD have made lots of beautiful memories together in first year. Those hostel nights, walks, canteen dinners, chit chat. Me and Divya, we have missed you a lot in this second year... I hope we are able to make up for that in the coming days. You are an innocent and beautiful soul I met in IITB. The person who was more happier than you on your placement was me. Still remember your crying face!! God bless you!!! Hoping to eat the Shaadi ka laddoo soon. Baki keep smiling in the beautiful way u do always and remember your kruter. Love you

Vaghela Sagarkumar Ramniklal : Dear poo, Tu b bhaot smile ke sath sabko bulati hai, sabki help karti hai. Sagar kesa he re tu.. kya chal raha he re.. yar mera guide bhot paresan karta hai lab me hi hoti hu meri pure din... kya yar ye last hai mera ab me ghar chali jaungi ab place nahi hui to.... but finally tujhe jo chahiye tha wo mil gaya tere city me, tere area me hi job lag gayii... baccho ko sahi se padhana... by the way bahot cute cute hai tu... shadi me zarror bulana.. mere jesa ho to bolna kuchh b... best wishes for your bright future... 😊

Divya Rathna : Hey pooja.. you are the first friend I made in IITB. Our journey started even before entering IITB and I never expected that we would end up as roommates making most of our memories in first year. Our PKD trio, kruter jokes, night walks, Kfc cravings on wednesdays, gulmohar dinners, trying on each others clothes, sometimes giving gyan to kruter, ISCP meetings.. I am going to miss all of these. We really missed you in second year but I am happy for you that u achieved what you desired. Stay happy, keep smiling and keep in touch. All the best for your future. God bless you.

Bharti Arora : That strong headed and beautiful singer jo harr baat par hass deti hai! Sharing our clothes was fun, my minion partner! I can relate to ur pain of wearing heels :p. Thanks for being honest with your advices, pointing at my shortcomings at the start of the semester itself...not everyone can do that. I like how you put your self-respect, career and family ahead of your love life. I found you quite strong-willed and clear about what you want in life. I hope you will keep in touch !

Rumjhum Mukherjee : I don't know what new to tell you. We've spent most of the time together in the lab listening to everyone's "galis"! Interestingly we became good friends because we were/and we still are travellers in the same boat! We've enough lemons thrown at us and look how we survived most of them! I hope you get what you want in life and excel in whatever you do! All the best! Keep in touch! 😊

Syed Shehbaz Ali : Ghar pe pehli fursat se bhagne wale hum dono hi the. Mumbaikar jo hai. Hamare pure batch ki ek group photo to ban gayi thanks to your birthday gathering warna corona ne to sab pani pher diya tha. Placement thoda late hua par ghar ke baju me hi hua mast ekdam. All the best for Tomorrow's Genius

Prathamesh Antarkar : We never had any interaction. We first met at the treasure hunt and later you interviewed me for SC. Let me take a moment to tell you that when we three met you during treasure hunt, it was our second last clue. But donno why we collectively thought talking with you is more fun than completing the race. Finally when you pushed us to complete, we were fourth to finish. Hope you be charming as always. All the best for your future.
