Kurapati Hitesh : A person who can balance every thing in life. A person who can balance a sentence with gaali and aap as well. LOL :P. I have seen a different you before your placement and your unstoppable questions about placements and related stuff. Hame bhi le jao kabhi ice-cream parlors ( pakda gya tu). Communication via wall..yes morse code. We could have spent some more valuable time if we were in campus. All the best for future.

Sagar Ganpat Sangodkar : Roommate ho to aisa :) Always ready to help, have a big respect for you. The dinner we used to have in our hostel room, the movies we watched together, gulmohar lunch and dinners will be always remembered. My Mumbai guide, my best friend, roommate and the only person with whom I could speak konkani, will miss you man. Remember how we used to keep an eye to find if any Goan is there in IITB? and how happy we used to feel when we hear someone speaking konkani? Our special fish thali dinners at Dadar, that TC thing at Bandra, latenight project discussions are some of the many memorable moments. And also those guitar lessons we learnt together. 3 years just passed like a blink of an eye.
