Saman Siddiqui : Silu!! ♥♥ I'm not sure ki aap YB pe aye ki nahi, but I'm still going to write something! Do you remember how we started talking? Koi Japanese company ne Insight ko hack kar Diya tha and then you gave me your intro XD The first thought was ki bhai yeh banda kitna stud hai and I'm so glad ki you decided to be a part of insight ♥ It would definitely not have been the same without you. You helped make Insight into a family and your work ethics are toh next level. Im so so proud of you and I know ki you will be that millionaire who's going to save me soon! You mean so much, please don't stop texting! ♥ Take care ♥ P.S - I don't want to graduate 🥺

Varun Sule : Hey Silu! You've been really helpful to us all this past year, and I especially like how you've never shied away from being honest about any opinion you've had, and that has been extremely helpful to steer not just the web team but also us both in the right direction. Wish you best of luck in life, you'll rock it through and through!
