Mayanka Medhe : Bhuyu, You are the love of my life ;). I can't imagine insti without you. We never had anything in common after 1st year yet you were the first person I would turn to whenever I wanted to be with a friend. I really admire your patience and wish I had more of it. Thanks for always listening to me no matter how senseless I was at times. I will miss our discussions over who is cuter in our favorite romcoms and kpop. I will also miss you trying to talk me out of ordering food (and failing at it :p). Apna prom dress hunt for tulle dresses and free coke tricks are a few of the many things I will always cherish. All the best <3. Don't forget the promise you made at Mahabaleshwar about leaving me <3

Risha Agarwal : Bhuyashi! We've spent very limited time together, but jitna bhi I got to know you, I found you really sweet :) the rcity shopping day and "thank you bharat sarkar" :P I wish you success in life, be good :)

R Sucheta : You are a bad person, kabhi sunti hi nahi h :( especially when i tell you to sleep. And fir late uthke lunch miss karti hai. Do I sound like a mom? Okay, that's it and stay tuned for the next part ;)

Sanket Agrawal : Bhukkaa (sorry for this bad nickname :P) Thanks for being the matchmaker along with your match :) You guys really did help me a lot in making everything happen, and I will surely treat you for it. You might seem very quiet and introverted to me but your friends tell me it is the exact opposite when you become comfortable with people. I hope i witness that bhuka soon too :P I will just say one thing every story you hear about me isn't true, verify them from me xD I hope you liked the poem on your bday :) Keep giving me cues to keep her happy okay? :) Naruto is going reaallllyyyy gooooooooddd, I will finish it soon and then enjoy all your memes <3

Saman Siddiqui : Bhuyashi, Thanks for getting me my first art competition win in Insti with your amazing wall painting skills :D <3 Thanks for bearing with me for 4 hours during that groundwork and thanks for always being this sweet! Stay in touch!

Bakhshish Preet Singh : <3

Namya Bagree : Bhuya Bhuya, our friendship found its way to rekindle in the last 6th sem 😊 From being one of the few knowing how to correctly pronounce your name to going on trips to Mahabaleshwar and Goa, we got to spend a huge amount of time together! You never plucked tea and brought it for us so maybe you aren't really from Assam. We also became wingies and make fun of short people! Mood Indigo was a great time where we actually went for events without waiting! Can't imagine how a lot of things would've happened had you not been in insti 😊 Maybe in the future you might change one of the rules you follow and we will get to see a different Bhuyashi 🤖

Vedarth Choksi : Bhuyashi! Met in techfest'17 as coordinators and hung out pretty much the whole next semester. I remember those late night walks and random trips to HN. Also thanks for being my partner in salsa night'18. 😊

Maitrey Gramopadhye : Yo Bhuyashi! HiFi and goa gang ke sath spend kiya time was indeed a lot of fun! Tere sath pafa ke events mai hangout karna was also great. Intern ke time ki trips kitni random thi :P but maza aya. Bas logo ko 4:30 AM pe PG ke bahar ek ghanta wait mat karaya kar :P. And definitely, let's go on a trip again! Baki keep in touch :). PS - I still think HiFi was a great name for it's time.

Kavya Bhandari : So glad to have met you and the rest of the Goa Gang in my 1st year. I remember our long discussions in the bus and our outings to Imagica and Essel world were so much fun, me rescuing you from Urvidh's passionate description of strategies in a random game. You are a very talented artist, and I admire your creativity. Farewell friend...<3
