Aditya Chalishazar : Thank you so much for all your help this year. Your enthusiasm and hardworking nature and penchant for conflict resolution is admirable... All the best for whatever is to come :)

Neharika Sharma : Rurusaaa!!! The way you handle things and situations is admirable. The walk we used to have from hostel to lab with our amazing conversation was something I always used to look forward to. Here I found a person who knew everybody in the campus and confirmed some of my theories I had regarding some people😁😁😁(pure proof ke saath) I miss that time and you😭

Bharti Arora : Can I really count the endless times you have helped me?! Starting from waxing at bizarre hours...running around the hospital for me when I was bedridden...those assignments u sent me...motivating me to swim and be physically strong. Stay the badass strong girl that you are. Lakshmi, Brentee aur tumhare night talks will be remembered. Apna flat tummy mujhe dede yaar. I hope we run into each other in Delhi someday XD Good luck bro!
