Abhijeet Aanand : Yo Roomie! (You are the MAN)!! Kitna bhi likh doon tere liye kaam hi rhega. From random debates to impromptu trips to laxmi, bhut kuch jeeya hai tere saath in teen saalo me. Kaash first year se hi roomie hote. You were one of those who stood by me when it mattered the most and thanks again for listening to my random rants. Kaafi seekha hai tujhse. I don't think anybody would be able to understand our random discussions. Alag level mindfuck hote hain. You know the real me. Thanks for consistently helping me in evaluating choices. Keep sending random articles jisko share kr skoon. Japan jaakr teko aur rant jhelna hai. Lol! Kuch bhi ho, apne rants chalte rhenge till infinity. Bros for life!!

Ayushraj Mehrotra : Yo! From taking my SARC coordinator interview to the CTM groundwork, it will be not wrong to say ki if aap nahi milte to me bhi nahi hota SARC me :P Also resume me itni nitpicking kaun karta hai, I remember spending a whole day just fixing your edits in my resume XD Pehela blog bhi aapne hi likhvaya tha! Abhi insti ke bahar Japan me bhi stay in touch :D PS: Why does our every conversation begin with Yo! :P

Arpit Kedia : Yo Muffu! Koi har topic par itna debate kaise kar sakta hai? Logic ho na ho, mera give-up karwa hi deta tha tu :D. Har prof se day 1 pe saare resources and permission maang ne ke baad wapas class jaata hi nahi tha xD. Logon ko tu maasum lagta hai, par hai bada chaalak, sab pata hai kisko kya bolna hai :P. Tu ne aisa kya kiya jo Animesh tera 1st year ka gussa humko maarke aaj tak nikaalta hai xDxD. Apne lambe discussions mess se zyada canteen mein hote the aadhi raat ko xD. Aur tu ek hi aaya tha mere saath Prithvi theatre! Freshie year mein clubs explore karne mein hesitate karne waale se Japan mein job karne waale tak, your journey is really inspiring. Keep in touch, and best of luck!

Animesh Singh : Nerves of steel - a phrase that defines you completely You are one of the most dedicated, hard working and enthusiastic individual I have ever met. You desire to achieve anything is amazing. I really respect you as an individual and a friend. Shuru se hi japanese type kaam karta tha aur ab Japan hi jaraha. It's perfect for a hard working individual like you. Your debating skills are certainly second to none :P but I think it should be used as a trump card unlike the first deal xD All the best for you future life Arigato for everything :)

Siddharth Mehta : Why do you like saying 'yo' so much bro! I hope you don't do that in corporate interactions... For most of our tenure, we'd been on opposite ends in terms of opinions and sleep schedules. And arguing with you has been one of the most exciting moments for me--migraine inducing no doubt, but exciting, like a heart attack. Thrilling, but fatal. You are a true force of nature, Mufaddal. Keep rocking and give Usama a chance!

Vedarth Choksi : Yo Muffu! First year me wingies the aur teri infi debates suni hai maine from day 1 😂. Do teen debating events me bhi sath me gaye the. First year ke har group photo me tha tu. Tujhe first year se kaafi zyada improve hote dekha hai uske liye kudos! Tu main course me gajar khaata hai aur side course me dinner. 😂 Anyways, ab toh tu Japan jaa ke machade. Stay in touch!

Khidir Usama Abdul Karim : Still remember that dancing white walker from mi in our 1st year. From early morning veiled advice 2 opening my eyes to help me understand d world completely through a completely new perspective. U are the one guy who feigns innocence but really is d one with the most intricate understanding of the world around u and with the blunt courage to say anything & everything time & again. From foot tapping music in meets to all your stupid laughs at my double-triple meaning jokes - I am sorry for all the times I have lost patience with u but u know it to be one of my many shortcomings. Please be the asshole u always were and allow me b the better gandhu that I will strive 2 b.

Vinayak Gupta : You are one of the first person I met in insti. Sach bolun to tu nahi hota to apne grp main major part fun wala kam ho jata. Sanjay Gandhi National park tere bina thoda feeeka reh jata. Anyway ab to alag hi direction main hai teri zindagi, Japan aur ML!! All the best yaar machana 😊

Ahsan Aslam : I still remember our first conversation on day 0 with Sairam bhai showing all the departments and we were slacking and not listening to what was being said. It was an instant connection. Among all the conversations, it was the arguments that I loved the most. I enjoy arguing with you, which I can't say about anyone I know. The unforgettable food outings from Mohammed Ali road to Bhatiyar gali..man!! I am planning for bigger ones when you are in India after work. The logic GC where we found we were absolute shit in that, all the lab fuckups together, me ignoring your advices..it was an awesome adventure. Lots to cherish and lots to look forward to. Godspeed bro!

Aayush Sharma : Yo muffu bro!! bhai start of the tenure mujhe laga tha ki tu kaafi formal aur punctual hai lekin within few weeks chamak gaya tha mein kitna galat tha 😊 tu harr baar unintentionally meet ke liye late ho jaata tha aur phir tere random bahane 😊 (bahut yaad aati unki). jokes apart mujhe tenure mein hamesha se tere liye ek soft corner hai. kaafi zyada honest aur kind-hearted♥ apan tenure ke later half mein zyada close hue the maybe H4 ke saamne jo baat karte karte nightout maara tha uss wajah se, kabhi nahi bhool sakta wo mein♥ nashik ki trip aur tere ghar ka khana bahut miss karunga. PS-baaki jab bhi isko padhe ek message/call zaroor karna, I will always wait for that♥.

Mahale Chaitanya Rahul : Yo Muffu! "Such a cute nickname" 😂😂 Bro me tuze treks pe nahi le jaunga wapas 😊 but apni Anjaneri monsoon trek epic thi. Fir Tere Ghar ka khana 😊. Aur Andaman trip teri bakchodi bina adhuri hoti 😊 All the best for the future, corporate meets me apni meets ki tarah late mat hona 😊

Kapil Shobhnani : Muffuuuu!!!! Though we haven't interacted much during the tenure, but jitna bhi interaction hua hai humesha positive vibes aati hai tujhse :D. Your debating and writing skills are just lit, and tere pass har topic ka knowledge hota hai. Placement sem mai GD practise were so much fun, beacuse of you tu kisi ko bolne hi nahi deta :P. All the best for your future. Always stay in touch.. <3

Ayush Ankit Singh : Muffu!!! Yaar tune anime dekhna itna late chalu kyu kiya 😞. Teri aur baki PR team ki chemistry hamesha Yaad rahegi 😄(i think Usama and you make a better pair tho🙏). I like how you are not afraid to put forward your thoughts. Aur vo Andaman ki trip tere bina itna entertaining nai hota (tera vo cycling karte so Jane wale photo 😂). All the best for the future and be in touch.

Harsh Vazirani : I respected you're commitment to your own stand time after time in team meets. You're sense of humor is quirky and made me smile quite a few times. You're also pretty good at what you make your mind to do and you obviously seem to know quite a bit about the literary arts. Thanks for raising your voice against the treatment of Design and PR by the other portfolios :P

Sigireddi Yamuna Devi : I'll miss your arguments so much muffu! We worked together for two years and achieved so much as a team. I'm sorry if I ever was rude to you. I wish you all the success and happiness in the world. Cheers!! <3

Ganesh Chelluboyina : Hi Mufaddal! You have grown quite a lot since I knew you as a freshie. But you've always had the knack of making a sensible point when few could. I remember seeing each other regularly last summer, after long days of work at interns 😊 You had invited me then for an impromptu trek, which I couldn't join unfortunately. I admire your enthu for all the things you believe in. I was happy to see Sarc grow to new heights during your tenure and because of your devoted work. All the best with everything ahead, and make sure to keep in touch!

Harshit Handa : Yo Muffu, bhai tere infi moments he jo me kabhi nahi bhuluga - meets me sona, table thokna, achank se apna point rakhne ke liye volume high karna and what not 😂😂. And tere vo double meaning jokes 😊. Tum PR walo ka threesome 😊😊 (ab to dono me se koi 1 choose kar le, kab tak dono ko latka ke rakhega 😊😊). Baki tere ideas humesha se sabse alag and creative hote the 🤔🤔. Apna major interaction tenure ke baad start hua, majory in 3rd year summer and placement sem. Apne late night walks, gossips, deep conversation humesha yaad rahege ♥. Nashik trip was fun with you ♥, aage bhi plan karte ♥. Lyf me yaad karte rehna and bhulna mat ♥.

Golu . : Intarected less? Nah, maybe? I don't know! You were the person always half/full asleep in the meetings and fidgeting the rest of the times when you were awake. But, I would never know how your mind always thought so differently. I remember all those discussion-cum-arguments we had 15 to 1 and how they concluded. It was one hell of an experience. I wish your brilliant mind all the success in the world. Keep in touch :)
