Shubham Jain : Hi shyam, from the first year to the final year, what a journey it has been. Your change is something that is magnificent. From the simple, quiet and sober person to a quick witted personality, it was really great to saw this change happening. last year in particular is something that will remain close to me, the squabbles between you and maggu, were always fun to be a part of. I hope you will soon achieve your goal and would serve this nation. And as you mentioned, savings for future karni hoti hain (hope you get what i meant to say xD), so aage jaake hume bhool mat jana, and yes i will be waiting for the invitation of the grand party at your hometown!!

Animesh Singhal : Shyam bandar!! Kya evolve hua hai yaar tu insti mein. Kaha ek word nahi bolta tha pehele aur ab toh kisi ki bhi khe ke le leta hai. Infinite bakchodi ki hai yaar tere saath toh! Canteen trips, roadtrips, lakshmi, Bhaneria ke saath vaali lake trip, catan ke games, punjabi gaano pe chilla ke naachna aur pata nahi kya kya! XD Yaad hai 3rd year summers mein kaise Shaqeel ko poore hostel mein dhund aaye they aur neech kaha mila tha poora geela :P All the best for UPSC! I know that you'll kill it! D

Vivek Sehgal : Words are not enough to describe you but that's true for any person. But seriously you have been lifeline at IITB. With you being in insti it felt like home. Always there to help me. You have got great sense of humor and time flies by when talking to you. Hope you do well in life and achieve your dreams 😊

Srajan Kumar Verma : Bhai thanks for loving Shaqueel so much!
