Anmol Gupta : Hello Lil Sis! Started with Insight Freshmen Newsletter, I guess? FAT Theory was almost low-key awkward XD, and then we hit it off with the brother-sister thing! Even though I was never into this munh-boli behan ka concept, I'm super glad I did this :P I never understood your repulsion to 'materialistic' gifts, but I'm glad you accepted plants and eatables :P The walks and meals together were fun, as was giving unsolicited gyaan at times xD 3rd year se DDP kaun start karta hai yaaaar? _/_ But for real, I hope that the best comes to you in insti and aage bhi :) Oh, and thank you a ton (again) for that "realization" :)) Your favorite insti brother 😊

Yashaswini Chauhan : It's sad that I didn't get to know you too well, but you taking my interview is one instance I really can't forget (As Karan says, aap bohot pyaar se gaand marte ho :p) And Biscuit is gonna miss you, come back to meet him soon!
