Apurv Tiwari : I will always introduce you to anyone new as the guy who literally lived in the reading room for two months and bathed in new SAC, apart from being a pyara bachcha! <3

Kirtesh Ajay Gadiya : I loved to discuss many things with you regarding governance and innovative ideas. Will pray for your success in Start-Up

Aryan Agal : Met you in first MI, and the first thing I did was make fun of you. Kaafi woke banda hai tu, and very knowledgeable. We could've hung out more but kaafi busy rahe with your startup stuff and my whatever crap I would be doing. It's been so much fun discussing tty stuff with you. And bas tujhse milke maza aata hai. Khush rehna, and machate rehna. It was a good ride <3

Patil Bhavesh Vasant : Really man, you are one of the coolest and best person I have met in insti. It would have been much better if I could have met u thoda pehle se. You are really helpful and knowledgeable person. Hope I could have worked with you. Please hamesha aisehi rehna, kabhi change mat hona aap. You will always be a source of motivation for me! Huge thanks for all your help and aapke suggestion kaafi lit hote hai. Please keep in touch aage bhi. Best of luck for everything. You will excel in whatever you do!

Tezan Sahu : I remember getting in touch with you over a Rattlesnake question by WnCC over FB Messenger....kaafi time lag gaya ye jaane me ki ye maha-machau insaan to humaare hi state ka hai!!! Always stay as inspiring as you are bro!! Do keep in touch

Tanya Gupta : Alok dude first of all infi respect for you for having the courage to take the path many people dream of but only few walk. I am glad we met this sem and caught up (more like kept crossing each other in the infi corridor and making plans to hang out :P). Thanks for introducing me to that chicken place :P Had fun bonding with you over love for the same songs, having m&ms and just sitting looking at the lakeside, you showing me the office space for your company and talking passionately about the work you do. Wishing you soon move to a bigger workplace and achieve all and more. When you become a billionaire I know I'll be proudly telling everyone around me I know you 😊 I'm not going to say stay in touch because I know you'll be too busy so I'll make all the efforts no worries XO XO (Because Weeknd love ♥)

R Sucheta : Remember how we once challenged each other who would get a better grade in BB101? XD Uske baad se you NEVER cared about grades XD Anyway, thanks to tty10 and that stupid hackathon (I was ready to miss my first insti birthday for that, wtf :P), I got to learn a lot from you. You have taken the road not taken and always surprise me with your actions. Fundae dene ke liye thanks, I hope I get to my senses and use them sometime. :(And hopefully make my sensei proud. :) :P And haan, thanks for always forgetting that I am a vegetarian and treating me to dosas. -_- All the best, stay the same and pls dont ditch me on my convocation day :'(

Shreyas Pimpalgaonkar : you're awesome
