Maayla Siddiqi : Tere saath to unlimited memories hai yaar 700 characters writing limit reach hojaygi raat k 3 baje insti me walk karna road k beech me or zor zor se gaane gaana "chaahe koi mujhe jungli kahe" Same music playlist taste, random plan karke Kanjurmarg movies dekhne jana, not just happy moments we shared a infinite emotional moments too crying on each other's shoulder when we got sick of our batchmates 😂😂 my best lab partner ever♥ hum dono me kab aqal ayegi pata nhi 😊 I love you!

Harsimran Kaur : Lissuuuuuuuu tu itni paradox h naa! You show confidence and I don't care about world wala attitude (which I admire) but at the same time you feel low in confidence and bothered by other's opinions sometimes! Get that confident self out and in control all the time because you can rule the world if you stop doubting yourself. You are smart, witty and cutest ♥♥♥

Shalini Tyagi : Hey.. the worst roommate ever ! Kitni raato ko meri bak-bak kar tune subah kiya Mujhe uthaane k liye light on aur fan off tune kiya Department se room tak 4am wala haunted walk mere saath kiya Konse janam ka badlaa liyaa ? Definitely the most irritating, annoying and stupid human I have have ever met. Ab toh tune wahi rehna hai, akele haunted midnight walks mae wo saari khaaniya yaad kario aur wo Maggie waale pal, wo baato waali raate, wo 2am bnb ka pizza and French fries fir teri digestion k liye hone waali short (bnb sae H11 in the clockwise direction) walk, mess mae saath khaane ka coordination and mirror waali ladaai! Hate you boht saara.. hope you get a terrible roommate so that you rea

Neharika Sharma : Lisuuuu Hi! Vo Bioinformatics ke project se ek raat pehle subah 5 baje ki walk is something I can't forget. You taking every word said to you by anybody in your stride is one of your most amazing qualities. No matter how tough situations turned out to be you kept your focus and did your work. What a 🌟 . Since you are the first person who used to get my jokes, I have a different level of respect for you😊 Stay amazing. ♥

Jeyapriya T J : My partner in crime😂My stupid friend 🤪 though I know you're not stupid, still calling you like that made me close to you. You're curious that's what made me be with you even though you don't improve your common sense 😊 So many happy moments with you. Wherever you're, if I need, you come to my room💛 That amazing new year, Marine drive mass, Diwali, Holi, all celebration in Mumbai was just because of you. Lots of apart from academic experiments in lab. More importantly, we share one thing in common: that forver single association 😊 Hope one day you get a boy you wish. The important quality in you is that you take everything sportive even though it's negative 💔 And, don't forget Kaju katl

Aravindan S : I don't know how to start.I start by saying your name Leesa the moti😂. You are very intersting character.I saw you became friend with everyone whoever u talks. It's a nice defining character.The ghost story between you and Shalini was fantastic and really like that story. I liked my nickname aaru which you create by you. We have good memories at Samer hills and rajdhani. I never forget. We had bad memories too.The quarrel created many things with me.Now I changed a lot. I missed opportunity to spend time with a good friend. I always respect you and your decisions 🙏. I hoped we would become friends again but corona changed everything.I hope you still in contact with me

Sreyashi Mandal : The first time I saw her was in the convocation hall and she was sitting next to me. My anxious self was like "Why is she talking to me? I don't even know her!!" And then the night came and we again met in the hallway and we started talking. We were joined by some other classmates and we got so into the conversation that we lost track of time. Gosh that was some grand way to start a friendship! She is so sweet, caring, weird and super senti and I totally adore her. Lisha sexy, wish you all the best for your future. <3 PS: Am gonna miss all the late night maggi making sessions in your room and also the namkeens from your home!! :P

Ohhhh...you have kept in mind every minute details of our first local tour at Sameer hills....I am extremely fortunate. I owe you for saving me from embarrassment in front of a class full of students during the POR of genvision as my fluency in English was really bad. You are like a child, sometimes very cheerful and after a while gloomy. I still remember we discussed a lot about making a study routine at first semester...you are studious and hardworking, I have to say that. And oh I just forget to mention...that day when Abhishek Shaw : I apologize for the mistake that day...I really did not want to hurt you...srrry lisha.....
