Sayan Roy : Mili, you are the best labmate. I do not have many people in my friendlist who can dance, sing, research and make sarcastic comments skillfully. I have learned so much from you. Thank you for being there.

Titash Baidya : The first day I saw you in d-mart when most of us went for shopping. Didn't understand much about you, later our friendship grew and condensed. Now it's almost dense like mercury (even more than that). Truly speaking I was a little bit afraid of talking to girls but you changed everything. A Lady Leonardo Da Vinci. Prolific singer with a enchanting voice, a good dancer, meritorious, straightforward, brutally honest person. We share almost overlapping views about life and its different aspects which revealed during the deep discussions in lab. Toronto is lucky to have a gem like you. I don't have much words to describe your academics because that would take at least 5 pages. Beauty with brain

Pradip Karmakar : i m blessed to met this awesome person in my life, i have never seen such helpful, having extraordinary sense on humour, smart, dedicated, extremely intelligent, caring, honest, all rounder, generous friend in my entire life. i gotta clear 2nd sem because of u,i wont forget ur biophysics and cell bio teachings ever. god k pass jitna talent ka opitons tha sab iske andar daal dia. i have got to learn so many things from u that is inexplainable! i will always miss our trip, illogical gossips, discussing,marine drive, useless baate, lab me bkchdi, dance prep, pg cult, taking selfies (u dnt like it mostly), group studies in h18 and thanks for always helping me & listening to my ideas; al th bst

Dance, music, art, academics- you can balance and still be the best at all of them. You are the type of cool bong that I aspire to be. You are so kind, so caring and brutally honest! You have always pushed me to do better and be better. Not many people have such team spirit and I really appreciate that. Your subject depth is unreal. I can't be thankful enough for all your suggestions and discussions before exams. Oh, how can I forget about our Sunny trip? Those were some good memories! Only request is Canada teh giye bhule jash na!! Will miss you a lot. Bhalo thakish!!! Best wishes.

Rumjhum Mukherjee : When you can't decide which talent to praise over the other for a person, you know you're standing next to a genius! And you are so excellent in all the things that you do and often leave me in awe about how you manage everything so well! Your life before IIT is some sort of a lesson for me and years later when you'd be reading this, you'll still understand what I mean! May you always sing better and even better and dance to the tunes of life as perfectly as you do now! May you get better in Toronto and don't ever forget me! Best of luck! 😊

Ashish Kumar Choudhary : I don't need 700 Characters to describe you, i can explain my feelings for u in 1 line..Caring Babe,Bro,love,sister..U are everything for me💖. I remember the 1st time when u had texted me..lab partner banega mera, then i replied haan with smiley emoji😊..1st time I saw u on civil's terrace where you were singing a song in ur melody voice and i was like omg ue bandi kitni talented hai💖. In lab you always gave me the opportunity to learn..tu kar le mein help kar dung. U have taught me sometimes its better to say no to someone rather than saying yes bcoz all people don't having the same kind hearted nature like u.#Abhi_masroof_hu_kaphi_fursat_mein_sochunga_tere_dar_pe_maine_kya_kya_paaya_ha

Nilanjan Bose : Well..i saw few people who are so composed from inside, yet vibrant outside..from "eibar naam dhore daka practice kor" to gala dinner party..it seems so natural when I talk with her..but the confusion remains..when I saw her the first time does not match with the first time she saw me..she has the intellect to make a mark in future..all the best..have a great time abroad..

Rohan Kumar Parida : 1 of d sweetest, free-minded person in my frnd circle. u work really hard to achieve ur goals which I hv seen in d sem3. Initially in d 1st sem I found u free to talk on any topic which I liked abt u really. Thn I came across ur powerful, melodious voice which took no longer to add u to my list of fav singers. I really miss those jamming sessions with u. I wish I could get some more time with u to improve my singing skills. Apart from singing, U hv been an amazing frnd to me. Maa v tujhse bht pyaar krti h. U hv nvr stopped motivating me whn i ws depressed in sem3. I wish I could make some duets wid u. Finally ur hard work paid off & u r going abrd fr PhD. I'm really happy fr u. lots of lv. Kp 😊

Abhishek Datta : One of my most respected person. Thanks broda for all the tips and wisdom you have shared through this entire journey for two years. Harsimran Kaur : I wanted to end this yearbook thing with a blast xD and I am doing that by writing for you. (haha). I cannot forget semester 1 goss at C222 ofcourse. I will never forget how you let me use your phone when I lost mine. You have been there for me from sem 1 though things turned sour in semester 2 to the extent I was afraid to join a lab alongside you but things went absolutely amazingly well. You have supported me throughout the time at lab made sure that I am never left out. From working alongside at late nights to eating biryani together to waking each other up before mechanobio class. Sem 4 did get us back. Thank you for being there I hope you will be there in future too much love. <3

Neharika Sharma : 15 minute refresh karne ke baad uff. Hi my fellow dog lover ! Humari dog cafe ki trip pending hai. I remember how just 2 hours before the exam I had the trust in you to help me revise the topic 😊. You have been a great friend. I will miss talking to you near the drying area. Best wishes for your future. You already know you are 🔥.

Jeyapriya T J : Admiration from an admirer. You're such an all rounder. Many times you have motivated me indirectly. During microbiology lab, I was fed up with cold room incharge. But, you were there with all the patience to help me. Titash's hand was cut. Being a lab partner, I didn't do anything. But, you were the one who rushed for first aid. Such a caring person ♥ I always admire the way you're. Our late night lab meeting during MTP 1 was one of the memorable moment. I will never forget how you greet me with your eyes, whenever we meet in our ways. Stay in touch💛

Priya Kumar : Milzzz... I believe my best memories with you are of our pg cult phase 1. We started last minute, we worked so hard and we did pretty well! I admire you a lot for your hard work and dedication - you choreographed your dance with an injured toe 🥺. And your voice 🥺🥺🥺 no words! We often used to go to convo just to hear u sing, and skip out the rest of the show 😊 You are intelligent and smart-spoken. No wonder you're going to Toronto♥ all the best milzz 🥳🥳🥳

Ruchika Pandey : Milllliii. Talent ki dukaan. Like everyone, whenever I look at you I wonder how can someone be so good at every thing and be ssoo cute all the time( ref. page 96, cheeks vs specs argument) I'll miss seeing you while brushing and even I want a picture with the brick Wall. I know bahar se tu jitni bhi squishy ho(:*) andar se bahot strong hai. I think the only good thing happened while giving that stupid GRE was that I got to know youXD. You have to remember that you can come to my room whenever you want to take a nap and I'll knock your door whenever I have to crib:P Alll the besst for Toronto! Bhool mat jana Canadda ja kar:p Sending you lots n lots love luck and waffles<3

Aparna Singhal : Heyy beautiful bong girl..You are package of everything be it dance, singing, creativity, reseach, beauty. You always helped me in my resume, lab work or be it any write-up work.Thanks a lot Mili..☺..keep shining always...😊

Aprajita Shukla : Hahahah! Soumili! Your message made me laugh out loud! 😄
I remeber you telling me that you want to sing a coke studio song somewhere abroad in front of the crowd. May be that dream is going to come true soon in Toronto!! I wish for you lots of singing, dancing and travelling! I've seen you working hard for your dreams and leaving no stone unturned in the process. You made it! Against all odds! Because your love for it was greater than all the obstacles! You did it, Soumili! Best wishes! ♥ (Om Mani padme hum) #mountaingirl

Lisha Awasthi : Hey Milli!!! You are perfect example of beauty with brains, you do everything with perfection... You are great influencer... I will miss Panda ki mimicry😂... Keep shining girl... Toronto ko bhi apna fan bna dena 🙌

Sumedha Ghosh : Hey. I know you since the last 5 years. We became better friends in iitb. I love the confidence you have and the way you carry yourself. You used to tell me that coming to my room was always an escape for you from all shit in college. We used to have lots of discussion about stuff( you know what). You are super talented person. I adore your hardwork. Congratulations for your PhD. Wish you all the best in life. I wish we could have had some more time together. Loads of love♥
