Siddharth Mehta : YOU. Why is it that our paths were aligned for so long and yet they crossed so late? I'm gonna cherish every conversation, forget every lame joke, and hold you forever accountable for spoiling story plots. Genius extraordinaire, Playboy, Misanthropist. PS. Rowaelin >> Chaolaena

Yagna Teja Reddy Velagala : Broooo, thanks a lot for helping me and our classmates each and every time an exam comes. I couldn't believe how easy it is for you to present any topic clearly for hours. You will be an inspiration to me in that aspect. I cannot imagine how my acads would have turned out if it was without you. I will remember you forever :-)<3 hugs

Vedant Ladha : Bhai itna kaise magta hai? I really admire you for how genuine, nice and hard working you are. I wish were half as disciplined as you are. Thanks for lending me your tooth paste at 6am for a month or so because I was too lazy to buy one myself. 😂 Also HS 200 padha ne ke liye thanks, khudse toh nahi padhne vaala tha mai vo.😂 Psych khelte hai kabhi? 😊

Chinmay Kalra : Who needs a professor to teach when you have someone like Pushan. I owe my CPI to you buddy. But you are more than just a 'teacher', someone who is always ready for an outing or a long walk in insti. And of course, a partner for games like lawn tennis and badminton. At the same time, your discipline and perseverance is truly inspiring. I am blessed to have you as a close wingmate for the last 4 years. Thank you so much.

Thanks for teaching the whole wing before every exam. This academic journey wouldn't have been such a breeze without you. I gladly dedicate my degree to you xD. I really appreciate your genuineness. Kaafi mast banda hai bhai tu! PS: Kun Faya Kun on your haronium still rings in my ears sometimes 😂

Mangal Mannat Piyush : No senti about you can be without mentioning your immense dedication towards each and everything you do. Roll numbers sath sath me the and roomies bhi the no wonder you have been the person with whome i have spent most of my insti life. I still remember all the innumerable rants that you have done about so many people (dont worry wont expose you) :p. You have not only taught me courses but also manu times motivated me to study for the quizzes, taught me badminton, tennis, english that i would always be thankful for. Thankyou so much for being my roommate, cheers!

Prathamesh Patil : Dada. What should I say? You are the epitome of discipline in the chaos called IITB. I really admire you and your generous attitude towards helping everyone. There has never been, neither there ever will be anyone like you. Our batch has passed half our courses because of you. I have been a participant in some of your rants and man, you know how to rant. I remember how foolish we were at the start of 1st year when we used to reach lecture 1 hour before it started!;p Ab to pahuch jaye wo bhi kaafi ho jata hai. You were my go to person for any academic or any other issue in the first year! I hope that amazingly calm attitude you have stays! Keep in touch!

Mohanish Verma : Sunna bhai, * (😂😂). Yaar tu late mila kaas 1st mai mila hot aag lga dete bakchodi ki. Bss call,msg drop krte rehna 😊.

Adithya Iyer : Pushan man, I think the whole meta department owes you their degree, enough said. Even through all of this you maintained a level of dignity and empathy, which is rarely found in insti. Principles me kaafi relate kiya hai tere saath, would have been fun to do more bakchodi in H18. Go make a change in the field in your phd!

Parag Mundhada : Pushan sir!! You are one of the most humble, cheerful as well as smart person I have seen in my life. You are legitimately one of the most machau person in our bacha but you are also, very fun to hang out with! I will surely miss you in mess where we were involved in a lot of random discussions! It was great to know a person like you and would love to remain in touch with you!

Anup Itale : Hi Pushan!! I always loved the discussions which we used to have in the mess. Thanks for the help sessions!! Siddharth Singh : Pushaan! I don't really know how we actually became friends. Maybe it was our common disdain of the superficial nature of most people here, or our plan to meet in London xD Any which way, after getting to know you tab mujhe laga " Maggu aise bhi hote hain ?!" You're machau in the true sense! Thanks for being my Tennis buddy, and providing notes. US mein jaake machane like we talked about this incomplete sem. And yes, I will forever be known as "Handsome Pushan ka dost". P.S Main right mein baithta tha, Mani left mein.

Mujhe toh tera shakal yaad rahega jab tera card nahi chal raha tha NTU mai XD Mess ke infi discussions ke alawa common hatred for Elec minor is <3 Yeh gora cheekna itna dudh peeke hua hai na? I am very thankful to you for the suggestions you gave me during our walk after the class in the evening. You are the perfect friend anyone could ask for. Your thirst for knowledge would definitely take you to your destination. I hope we will meet in the future. Stay safe.

Rushabh Vora : Bal!! I don't remember calling u by ur name even once 😊. U were the best teacher I had in insti♥ (special mention EE325 jisme meri tere se jyada lagi🤔🤔) although things would have been a lot better for me if tune BC maarli hoti to chemical😅 but u didn't 🙄. I will miss coming to u for resume prep, intern prep or pretty much any form that I had to fill, you were the only one jiske saath I talked about tennis, will miss listening to your music, playing cards. I hope that I will soon be the "official" member of bhh🤔 and do not stop ranting about others, you are great at it♥😊 Looking forward to meeting you and beating you at baddy someday🙏

Kosuri Sandeep : Yo pushan!!! My Baddy Partner!! Though our court hitting instances had been very low which went against our plans, the played ones are really grueling. As a trainer, I wish you would work on improving your game. Hope you would lose weight and transform the way you desire. Your love for the core subject and teaching had placed you where you are today. Up to me, you are the best student tutor I have ever learnt from. Never had I ever come across a student who is as disciplined as you. I wish you best of luck for all your future endeavors. You will surely be missed.

Kirtesh Ajay Gadiya : NTSE to IIT was dun though. You were an inspiration. You used to say in class 9th that I have my science lab key with me. In IIT mostly during NCC days we remained together. Please stop calling me "Tirchi". All the best for PhD! Stay in touch always!

Owais Chunawala : Pushan, you are one of the greatest teachers that I had a chance to learn from. I would have failed in few courses if it was not for your help sessions. Because of you, I got to do things that I'm really passionate about (work on my startup) in the insti, which would have not been possible otherwise. I'm very grateful to you for that. Thank you for telling me about your research as well as discussing the science & engineering problems that I came up to you with. The Selflessness character that you posses is something which only very few great men/women in history have possessed. I won't be surprised in future, if I read about you in media, doing something great for our society. All the best!

Pravin Raut : Pushan, you have been an excellent guide for me over the past three years of our interaction. I always looked at you to learn and strive for what I believe in. Finally, I have started reading books:) I will remember our post-lecture walks to the hostel. I will remember our frustrating minor lectures. I will remember our second row in the lecture hall. And I will remember Pushan quietly reading a book before the lecture. Keep mentoring us, keep motivating us.

Pranav Pable : Pushan sir tumhi mahan ahat! You are one of the handful of people who actually pay attention to the lectures. You are a genius. You explain complex things so elegantly that most of your help sessions were better than the lectures by the professor. A lot of times people actually looked up to you for their doubts rather than the professor. "Pushan ne likha hai to sahi hoga". You are always ready to help your friends no matter what. Kiti tari help sessions ghetle aatil tu. Kiti tari vela lecture chya madhe vicharlele silly doubts explain kele astil tu. I dont think I could survive a lot of courses without your help sessions or your notes(god they were superb). Aple "muli kunachya mage lagtat" vale discussions 🤔 nehmi lakshat rahtil. It's all thanks to you that my CPI increased considerably. we will definitely stay in touch. Thank you so much for everything.

Shubham Bhardwaj : You're the first one I'm writing for coz YOU ARE THE BEST! I was this kid in my second year, with literally no clue what to do with life. You came, gave all the guidance I needed, listened to my BT which wasn't even what you signed up for, and made the best out of me :) I'll be forever in your debt and you'll always be in my heart ♥ I'll never forget those super apt discussions in H4, infi machaxx fundae, those treats, finally the name of our group 🤪 and of course this wing along with you ❤️❤️

Maverixx mei maja aaya dono saal, sarcasm khelne mei, fourthies ke saath baat karne mei and kisi ka gyaan sunne mei(iykwim). I wished to have you guys at our own wing for the final year, but we went to H18. Final sem mei dono hi busy ho gaye but atleast we got what we wanted. By God's grace I had great teachers and have always had great amount of respect for them. I couldn't interact with any prof, gain their trust. I would like to say that it was because I found you as my new teacher who has my respect. Apart from studies you are great at badminton and tennis. How can I forget your all-nighter for surbahar. You and your multi-instrumental musical knowledge always amazed me.
