Abhinish Anand : You are gadhi...nakchari...moti..bhainsi..tedhi bhindii....you are all those things but at the end it feels awesome to remember the good times spent wid u...I still remember the first time we met in the lab. You were asking to do the assignment together. Also, we had gone on a lot of trips and had spent a lot of time together...thats why I had the most number of pics wid u....Every trip become fun bcz of your jolly forcing nature. Our last activity i.e. fat burning exercise remain unfinished...so sad...we wasted our money together..hahaha. I wish we all remain connected and keep enjoying together like before in bangalore too. Wish you a great life ahead.

Rushikesh Avinash Navghare : Hi Moti, you are a sweet and confident individual. We had a slow-delayed and shy-ish introduction but we gelled up pretty well along. Attending Mood-I concerts with you will be memorable. Trips, Dinners, Movie nights and last but not the least attending fat burn classes together was a retreat😁😁😁. Tuze teri dream company mil gayi, good luck👍, have a wonderful life ahead. Shaadi me bulaana mat bhulna🤔

Arindam Sarkar : Sweetest person around. Thoda sa non veg khaa liya kar. It's not that bad :D. Keep spreading joy. And keep waking up in the morning without reminder :P. Best of luck for your future.
