If you could pack up a bunch of things from the institute to keep with you forever, what will those be?

Those memories of MTD lab, the whole H11-A4 room! And some animals as well :P

Himanshu Bishwash : I was so damn exhausted on the day of orientation and you actually brought food and water for me! Not to mention, tolerated me rant about all that is not going as per plan. That is the sweetest thing someone has ever done for me. I never thanked you for that. You have a peculiar personality and you think different, out of the ordinary. This is something I like about you. Be like this, never change. Never stop questioning the small things in life. Thanks for being a good friend and supporting me when I needed it.

Reshma Sahoo : Thank you dear... There are so many things I want to write about you.. but what I will take away with me is your smile... Anyone can fall for that smile... And I did multiple times... Beyond that smile I see so other things.. I don't know.. but I have read somewhere, the brightest smiles come from the darkest hours.. your honesty, your care... I will miss the most.. I will love to be that friend whenever needed.. just a call away... I love to listen when you talk... your "nai na sun..me batati hun kya hua tha.." but that day in the hospital, thanks for being that friend.. Love you.. I do..♥

Khaire Abhishek Vinayak : Namaskar Mumbaikar, tu khup madat kartes pan jiddi ahes bar ka. Tu ani mi doghahi garam dokyache tyamule bhandalo pan khup vela ani visarlo pan. Tu rangoli sathi khup mehant karayla lavleli, kiti te kasht. Tula chidawayla maja gets mhanun kadhi kadhi muddam chidwaycho. Kahi gairsamaj astil tar te jata jata jatil. Hasat raha bhetuch Mumbai jawalach ahe. :D

Ananya Sarangi : Agar koi puche max projects mene kiske saath kiye, you obviously know the answer. My marathi teacher !! Meri alarm, gossip partner and many more. Koi koi subject mein toh teri wajah se hi pass ki hun mein. Thanks for being with me. Han apna Sameer hills reh gaya but woh jarur pura hoga. TD 609 memories have been too special because of you. Tere bina 2 months TD609 mein nahi tik pati. Sky is the limit for you. May you achieve what you have desired for. And maaf kadena jo bhi galti ki hungi agar. And Jai Khadka and Jai jhokala !!! Long live my marathi 😊 Love you ♥♥

Nisha Satish : Hey! Thank you for being a part of such a beautiful journey. A drop in the ocean of memories<3 I wish you a successful life filled with happiness! Take care:)

Rohit Kumar Prince : Haha! First, Thank you for that naamkaran, I have a lot of nick names now from CTARA. I remember our first group night out and that long discussion. You have indeed changed a lot in perspective but the shouting wala adat remained :3 I still laugh at our verbal fight couple of times over working on GW :p and I have never received so much of warnings from any other person so far. Yes, that train journey was indeed funny and memorable which also gave me field stay partner. Thank you for guiding through Bombay traffics when needed. The fight between you and Sameer....oh GOD!! (Poona wins BTW) :p. I'll remember Bombay for two things- IITB and no invitation to Dadar in 2 years :p

Swatika Priyambada : Roomie, I admire you as you were extremely hardworking, focused and helpful. You helped in a lot in my studies. Being a city girl that too from Mumbai and that too from Dadar, I was surprised that you feel so deeply about rural India. Keep up and good work and have a great future ahead (Mickey and Minnie)

Aditya Chalishazar : Thank you so much for all your help this year! You're really thoughtful and caring about all people around you. It was fun doing the Orientation and other things this year! All the best and stay in touch! :)
