Ganesh Chelluboyina : First year winter with you in H5 was one of the most epic, enjoyable and carefree time in insti. Gossiping way into the night, eating egg bhurji and chapati together at the canteen, working at IC, and many more. I always thought you were way smarter than your age. My only regret is we should have hung out more after that. Stay cool, all the best!

Kumaresh Ramesh : Yo! We first met when you ambushed me after Gen Quiz GC when you recognized me from a forgettable event. I wouldn't have chosen to be your friend then, and thank God I was not given a choice. Your support and advice has always served me well, especially the fourth semester, when you would hear out my rants, be it in TCH (why the heck would you order Pav Bhaji!) or Messenger. I am not easy to be around and we don't share the most easy dynamic, but you would be there to help me do the best by myself. Thank you for your unapologetic opinion, unexpectedly good recommendations, and unwavering friendship. Wishing you beauty, health and happiness. //when are we meeting ugh

Karan Kothadiya : You're such a sweet person, Nithin yaaar! So polite and so easy to talk to. I had no idea who you were before our case group but even then you helped me with everything I asked you for and I can't thank you enough for it. I'm sure we'll stay friends going ahead. You only have to drop a message whenever you need me. Love, K

Mudita Rana : Team ka sabse chill, no-nonsense guy :p I've always found it hard to keep up with your philosophical take at things. That's also one of the reasons why I admire and respect you. Your curiosity level is hard to match, during PO days you were the source for insti gossip for most of us 😂😂 yes I still wonder if you have Excel sheets made for that purpose. I also wonder how you knew about the ppo even before I did 😂 Another update: Giri/Haji was awesome. Thank you for the suggestion ☺ Have a great successful time ahead Nithin, and keep smiling 🍷

Cherub Kapoor : Nithin <3 Aapse zyada structured and sane banda nahi dekha maine. You've been THE go-to person for me whenever I've faced the question ki life mein kya karna hai. And you were ALWAYS there, with full enthusiasm. You're the kinda guy who's capable of earning money by talking about life hacks. I'm super lucky ki we could meet. To more times ahead! ^_^

Arya Mithu Garg : Tumhara calmness level alag hi hai, “Abe meri baat suno yahi hai Killer, pehle ise udate hai” btw nice instincts. Kaafi zada talented hai bhai tu and know bhi hai kaafi zada. Kaafi unique banda hai tu bhai, although its not a bad thing but there are times when you should assert your feelings more aggressively, I have never seen you angry or even a bit aggressive. I am happy to meet such amazing person like you, with shit load of logic and curiosity. Ek complaint hai bas, kaafi distant types ho gaya tu during PM tenure, maybe busy hoga. Hoping ki hum vo bhi sort karle. Milte hai trip pe

Varun Sule : Dude, I'm proud to say that I've learned so much from your ability to stay calm, thoughtful and focused in worst of crises, and still be able to give me the most evergreen advice if I ever asked for it. Don't worry, you won't get rid of me that easily XD.

Prem Agrawal : Sabse shant, but dimag me infi chize leke chlna wala insan 🤪 All the discussions, even for the smallest thing, with you were so amazing, thanks for all that. Kaafi thought provoking baatein krta h tu and logical bhi. Hmesha order krne se pehle Kurkure wala concept kaafi acha lga meko 🤪 Dono hi trip per mze aye kaafi tere saath. Looking forward for more of those discussions and trips. Stay in touch 🍷

Vatsal Khetan : Approachable, helpful and affable- three words to describe you. Thanks for being a constant support during tough times of my life and bearing my querulous nature. Means a lot dude

Aayush Anurag : Nithin Bro, I still wonder tum kahin bhi, kisi bhi position mein kaise soo jaate ho. You were always there when I needed some counselling or advice regarding placements/interns. Honestly, I owe my Hopkins intern to you. Your rich knowledge always led to insightful conversations and excellent recommendations. I regret now saying “Ye Movie ka mann nhi hai” to every other Movie plans with Nishit😁. Bro woh Farzi Cafe aur Bohemian Rhapsody fiasco yaad rahega. Hopeful of many more rematches of Catan<3.

Shubhankar Mihir Seth : Hey Nithin, I think we started off by prepping together for Insight and then (unsuccessfully) participating in case competitions. I've really enjoyed our conversations in passing in H2, and the lovely outing we had to LPQ. You've always amazed me by being so approachable and soft-spoken, and of course, with your tireless work ethic. Also, even though I didn't sit for Placements, I couldn't have imagined a more understanding and fair PM - so kudos to you! I hope you stay the driven go-getter that you are and that we continue to share a living space (XD) and great food in the years to come!

Bohra Ankit Narendra : Hey Nithin, your calmness is unmatched. A sincere, silent, straight-forward person with whom discussions can get really interesting. Ofcourse how can i forget, the secrets person who knows everything about insti before anyone else😁. Thanks a lot for helping and being so supportive during placements. Even during the interview day, you helped me relax and calm down. The placement case prep was fun together and I'm glad that we'll be in the same firm so looking forward to make some more memorable moments!😁

Aditya Kumar Mahto : Yooo Nithin!! You have been one of the most calm and composed person I have known. The charm that you carry with you is precious. One can pick up any incident and discuss the psychology behind it. Conversations with you have been very insightful. Thanks a lot for all the help during the placement season and moral support during the interviews. It meant a lot. We'll stay in touch. All the best for everything ahead!

Kavish Rathod : " Nithin, ab kya karu " I remember esse messages se maine kitna pareshaan kara hai aapko :P But Appke jaisa polite, structured and organized banda maine nahi dekha, you know exactly what you want and know how to get that. but apart from this, you know a lot about insti and what's happening where, you are the chupa rustum of Gossips. Those random sessions in DN, wish there could have been more, that Day 1 planning in your room that list of your bookmarked restaurants is yet to be explored :P. Thank you for all the guidance and tolerating the way I procrastinated things, have learnt a lot from you. You got what you wanted and aimed for, that's a success story in itself.

Mukul Jangid : Nithin broooo Kya chill Banda hai tu. Tere saath kiye conversations bilkul hi different hote hai 😊. Aur chalte hai shopping pe kabhi like intern time. Tumhara 4k waala shirt khareedenge♥

Vishal Jain : "Ye Vishal tang karta hai yaar itna" - I knew it! Pretty sure I annoyed you a lot with my placement related doubts. But intern ho ya placement, sabse pehle "cryptic" way me tune hi bataya hai. We have watched so many movies saath me, even in Bangalore. (Subtle reminder ki I'll be available for Netflix party, on weekends 😊). For some reason, your validation has always meant a lot to me, maybe because it's so rare 😊. Keep sharing nice stuff and teaching us how to appreciate them.

Apurv Tiwari : Nithin! You and Ishita are the two people I wish I had spent more time with. You were so cute that day in LAX, and house party mein bhi tumhare sath interaction was fun, and tumhare nikalte time jo pic liya tha that is so good! <3 I know I have been at the wrong place at the wrong time so many times :P All the best for the future :D

Nishit Nagar : Bro har position mein, mid conversations, mid phone calls kaise so jata hai tu. Freshie summer mein saath mein jugaad ke room mein rehne se, fourth year ke apne Catan games tak kaafi amazing memories di tune. So many movies I watched because of you, thanks for introducing me to Catan. Mere placement aur intern ko sambhala uske liye toh words hi nahi hai mere paas. You have so much general and random knowledge that I learned something new in our every conversation. Phir koi movie chalte hai Day 1 Show 1.

Mahajan Devavrat Shailesh : Nithin bhai, sach me tumhare jitni help kisine nai kari hogi internship me jab katra tha tabse placement tak. I cannot possibly thank you enough for all of it.

Bhadri Narayanan R : Hey daaa! I don't know where to pinpoint our friendship in the timeline, but it's been so great knowing you. We agree on so many things and you were nice company during all the Tiffin time chit chats in H2. You were an amazing IC and PM .. have always loved to hear the inside stories :P I'll never forget how you subtly hinted about P&G when I had lost all hope that day. Stay the same jovial guy and be happy :D

Sachin Tak : "you are one of the most calm person I know in insti and whatnot.... " bhai tere feed padanae mae hae maza a gaya 🤣🤣. Anyways I remember your first allotment as an IC.... from there to PM. Bhai ko yadd karna agar kabhe kuch kam ho to.....

Luv Nainwal : Yo Nithin! Intellect level maxx. Knowing something about everything. "Tu chill maar, bro", "Arey woh chodh tu yeh sun" ~ running your hand on the back xD were the constants. Apni "Hero Trip" to mast tha. Kaafi chill banda hai tu. Itni capacity kaise hai? 😊 Hamara pro photographer and one who has the capacity to sleep anywhere anytime xD Apne case meetings bhi next level hote the and those junk food ka share bhi ♥ Stay in touch and Machate rehna! :D

You were always there whenever i needed you. Because of you i started reading books and your recommendations was best whether it is a book or movie or food! Random late night talks and sath me khana order krna and watching F.R.I.E.N.D.S was great fun. I'll miss you a lot bhai. Bs stay in touch and machate raho life me all the best👉

Anup Itale : PM sir! I really wish hum aur interact karte..kaafi calm and composed banda hai tu..life me tu machayega ye to pata hi hai..stay in touch bro!

Prachee Prabhutendolkar : Well if I get stuck somewhere making a choice, i always know that there is a person who will have better described the problem to me if not the solution. You have made me realise that I have to think for myself, others can only give opinions or at least I should only consider them as opinions and not as paths to be followed. And please dont show those crazy concepts and videos to others, they give goosebumps and have weird philosophies, not for soft heart. Thank you for helping me figure myself out a little. :D
