Yagna Teja Reddy Velagala : Yo Mr.Prospective PM of India! I still cannot understand how we became friends when I cannot understand Hindi and you cannot speak English, haha. But still, I won't forget our long long meetings discussing about random things. Remember, I would never get fooled by you again :-) And, thank you for bearing with me during my thick and thin. I will definitely miss you bro. Wishing you the best for your future <3 hugs
