Sweta Shaw : The person with whom I have lot and lot of good and fun memories in insti. The person who made my first semester lit 🔥. People say you were introvert but looking at the present you, it's difficult to believe 😂. #chillHai... Going for ice-creams and movie had become a ritual with you. Out of all the movies, I guess the most unique one was "Parasite". I wish I had watched one Gujju movie with you. Next time mile to please download kar ke lana wo movie complete karni hai :p . Dandiya night, Durga Puja + Dandiya night in Hiranandani (unforgettable) , celebrating diwali at your place, uttarayan, holi, kaladarshan- road paintings. Thanks for organizing all the cultural activities that you did and encouraging everyone to be a part of it. You have done a tremendous job being the cultural secretary. During PG Cult Phase 2, Whenever I used to get stuck , phone Direct tumko lagta tha "Jayesh aisa aisa ho gaya hai" and tum kitni patiently saari problem solve karte the. Na jaane kitna gussa nikala hai maine tumpe and you used to manage everything. Raat bhar practices and then hostel 6 and hostel 2 ke chakkar. You have very good leadership skills and I know you will be a successful businessman one day. Thanks for everything - for annoying me, for helping me, for being with me. Zindagi me ek Gujju dost to banana hi chahiye. And as you say #chillHai

Saurabh Kawale : Your spirit was incredible bhai. Isbar jo PG cult hua rehta to CITARA pool hi jitata

Himali Mhatre : If you had to summarize the whole discussion around Development theory , "Only some people can understand " " Chill hai " ! May be this would have been your answer even then ! 😊 Being a cult secy, your struggle to encourage participation continues abhibhi as you convince people to write here ! 😊 Baki muzhe to kabhi icecream nahi mila warna kuch aur tareef kardeti ! 😂 All the best ! 😊

Shiksha Singhal : I don't remember meeting u for the first time, either it was in Mood Indigo or before that. We met quite late but glad we did!! Always smiling, ready for movies or going out for eating.. I will never forget wo chupke se khakra lana, mess me ek dum se shant ho jana kreason to pata hi sbko 😊), piche se shiksha shiksha chillana (ladkiyo ki awaz me) , aur ye bolna "apko nhi pta mai pehle kitna introvert tha.. ankush bhai se puch lo" and many more such things. Feel hua na 😊😊..

Sandeep Kumar P M : Apne crush ke liye bhi kuch likh do bhai. WhatsApp status pe toh roz likhte ho. Yahan pe toh hamesha ke liye rahega. (P.S: yeh post daalne ke liye mere upar koi pressure nahi tha)

Cresha Gracy Nadar : Jayesh, the always #chill hai wala person. He will explain aisa aisa problem hai in detail and finally say "chill hai.. ho jaayega". Chill gang is chill gang because of this chill hai wala Jayesh :-P Our biofuels group.. you, Renu, Meghana, Krutika and me! Our unending discussions everytime we meet, so many memories right :) I have to say you are a person who is always ready to help. You will keep all of your work aside and still manage to help others. Your ever smiling face cheers up people around. All the very best for your future, Jayesh. May God help you find the purpose of your life and bless you :) You will definitely be missed. Chill gang ko bhul math jaana famous hone k baad :-P

Suyog Kapsikar : Hello Bro. I do not know you from the times some of our other mates do, but that does not make our little friendship any lesser. I remember the small talks that we had about politics. Couple of Laxmi visits and that late night talk on the Chhat with my Harmonica and your speaker. One does not need to have lots of moments to share a good bond. Sometimes small moments make good memories.

Aman Srivastav : There is so much to write about you. I don't know where to start, from 2 am system dynamics lecture or late night life talks. A person whom I never saw sad, neither in low grade phase nor in 'rejection' which he faced many. An interesting person to talk to, who have a very different views on things. Sometimes he talk just to annoy people. It take time to understand what are his real views. I don't know how my last year would have been without your long, annoying, off topic stories, your enthusiasm for every small event in insti, your always available stock of snacks. And last bhai degree le lena jaroor se. Sometimes #No_Chill is also good ;-)

Ankush Kumar Singh : Dear Dhingro, H4 ki wing, badminton, tere ghar ka nasta, Phir tere crush par discussion, relationship advice and pareshan hone par di gayi teri positive advice bhut miss krne vala hu mai. Lakin ye bata ki tu gujju hai ki rajsthani ? 🥳🥳🥳

Mayur Zadbuke : Dear jayesh, from floormate(idk its even a thing or not 😊) to one of my good friend in insti, we come a long way. You are one the most chill guy i met and i hope you will always be like that. From our fights to very few but deep late night discussions on terrace and from dinner in the mess to parties in laxmi, everything is a memory to remember. Hope to see you soon and kabhi vaccination karwane se ya injection se dar lag raha to call kar dena 😊😊😊

Prathamesh Antarkar : Jayes bhai...Sabse sahi lagta hai bhai tera contact circle...Aur tere sath mirchi khana... Jalgaon ka khana...Wo long hugs...Sabse gajab to bday celebration...aankh aur gd dono khol diye...Diwali celebrations...Patang...Bohot hai be...Thoda office bhi sikh le...yahi sare jagri yaar kabhi tereko AtmaNirbhar nai banne denge...

Rohit Kumar Prince : Share kar kar ke sabko yearbook ka yaad dilane wale mota bhai ko pranam. I remember how u helped me during document verification time. The first time I realized how innocent u r (were, actually) was TD602 field visit. A lot of things has changed in u since then, but its good (except non-veg). I will remember your high level political statements :3. You r a friend whom I approached in every religious works and temple visits, u know that. Since you have mentioned a lot about friendship: it varies from person to person and sometimes some people don't prefer to pretend what it means. Some people have their own way of conveying it. Do great in life :) (word limit reached, couldn't write more).

Thirumal Reddy Vennam : Jayesh, the epitome of change. CTARA kisi ka perspective change kiya ki nhi pta nhi par thu tho pura badal gye... Hearing ur bed time horrors and early morning bhajans to saying my brother from surya is the best I have known. It's good to experience all but kuch cheez dusre ke experience se bhi seek sakte ho. Cult secy, the most active one par kisi aur ko tho push nhi kar paya apne batch se... Proud Gujju, bas ladki dekh ke state mat badlo be... From the one who always need a helping hand to the one offering hand u have come far and I hope u reach more... All the best Shailesh Holkar : log muze bolte hai ki mai sabse chill hun par muzse jyada to tu chill hai. kaise kar lete ho ye saab??. apne 609 me to lag gaye the par bhir bhi yaar insan achha hai tu. Bhai all the best for your journey. jo chu*pa IIT me kiya hai wo aage bhi karte rahna.

Mona Bhararia : Mai km nhi bolti thi.. tu mujse zada bolta tha 😂😂😂.. but even i won't forget those days.. our first garba practice to dandiya in that rain.. it was fun 😊.. and also.. if it wouldn't be for u, i wud probably not have gone for placements at all..thank you.. all the best for your business plans 🙌
