Ravi Kumar Kushawaha : Yo bro. I remember we met some time during first week of college. You are a gifted dancer. But life mein itna roya mat kr. Ab to achi job bhi lag gyi JLR mein, chill maar. Best of luck for future.

Saurabh Kolambe : Kya be rotlu ! wassup ! kab khatam hoga tera rona bhai. I remember bangalore me intern ke time bhand hoke kya roya tha tu. Intern ke pehle me itna janta nahi tha tuze actually, but us din ke baad kabhi bhul nahi paunga tuze. Bhand hoke kitna give-up karaya tha tune "Teri gaddi UK jayegi" bol bol ke. (-_-). Kabhi nahi bhul sakta me wo. Wo 2 months me kafi enjoy kiya apan ne and uske baad insti me bhi kafi random baate karte rehte the mere room pe apan. I am gonna miss all that bro. Bangalore me milte rehna. Weekends pe mast ghumenge, random talks karenge, infi maze karenge! And bandi ke chakkar me khud ka mat kaat lena xD. Always remember I am just a call away. xDD! See you soon!

Satyam Mohla : From you asking me to find history of I think JLR during placements to me just randomly bakaring in your room about gen things, life has been always like this. Walking into your room whether in the H6 wing or H18, you were always up for it. this btw also includes random BGF pains about gate and what not. :p I am going to miss that man, but I am glad our 4 years went together the way they did. And with our plans of starting a tech ki dukaan, apan jaruur bulshitting krte rhne waale hain :D take care man, stay in touch :D
