Jatin Chandawat : Pratik bhai. Tere kaise kaise mood swinger dekhe h maine. One of my best friends. Apan kitne trips or movies dekhe sath m bhai sab memorable hai. Marine Drive tera wo joota lene k liye koodna, ya wo Phoenix me Subway khana to Neptune ki movies. Tere room p bhi itne time k liye baitha jaya karta tha mai kuch bhi random bakbak karte hue. Bhai you are really smart. Good luck for future. Yaad rakhna iss naachiz ko!

Arpit Agarwal : Working with you as an APC was really enjoyable! You were a person whom one could trust blindly- if this guy has taken up a responsibility, he will get it done. You were the first guy in the institute who I saw following a schedule. Your dedication, time-management abilities and the curiosity you showed in understanding how things are done were impressive! You'll definitely achieve milestones in life. Finally I liked your bravery during placements- walking out of that Abinbev test, keeping your calm on day 2 and the way you told me-"I won't let the rush of placements affect my career in any way". You weren't able to accompany us in any trips though. I hope we'll get a chance to do a good on Saket Milind Kothalkar : PM sahab! I always gets stunned seeing ur confidence level in any activity. I have no words to describe your hardwork as a PM. It shows your passion and dedication towards your work. You gave ur 100% efforts and that results into successful placement season. Hats off to you man! You always motivated me to work selflessly. I always remember our cluster treet. One of best memory i had in campus. There is saying in marathi "Murti lahan pan kirti mahan". U are perfect example of it. I will not say best of luck to you becuz tu thahra hardworking banda jise luck ki jarurat nhi. Hamesha aise hi rahna chotu 😊 and stay in touch!

Arya Mithu Garg : Yooo Bro, bhai hats off to your hardwork and dedication. Bot accha hua ki tu PM bana, and I respect ki tune kitna effort dala sabme. I am sure ye hardwork bot dur leke jaega tujhe. Bhai tum jaise log non-core me kya karre samajh nai ata. Good luck bro for the future and thoda chill karle kabhi life me :P

Animesh Singhal : Pratik bhai<3 Mood swings ki confession vaali first year ki yaad hai jab randomly Jatin ne bola tha ki usne pijja nahi khaaya tha XD? We have had our fair share of lukkha and philosophical discussions. Thanks for being there when I needed you during those stressful mornings in the 7th sem! I realllyyy admire you for the way you managed your time and how you cared for people. You showed that you are made of steel but have a heart of gold when you literally gave your everything to your tenure amidst all the crap we used to hear. Kudos to that bro <3 1st year R-city outing, room & mess ke discussions, Imagica and Sameer hill trip, Gullu meetups, etc etc I'm going to cherish all that!

Shubham Jain : Hi pratik, though we couldn't interact much, from whatever little i know you really are a helpful and dedicated person and not to forget a person who always abide by rules and that's why sometimes strict!! I just remember how on one day when we were sitting in mess and having a discussion regarding mess menu(i guess), the expressions that you changed in a second from that serious look to that happy face, it has just imprinted on my mind. Well keep working hard and all the best for your future endeavors!! :)
