Modani Abhishek Sureshchandra : The most intimidating person I have met in IITB. At least I thought so in the 1st sem. You are one of the most hardworking, patient and, sanskari ladka (sirf mujhe and nambi ko reality pata hai) I have met in my life. Let it be any course, if you have any doubt, pushkar is the guy you go to. But tere convincing skills ke wajahse bichare meri and neeraj (mostly) ki watt lag jati..# optimization. Let it be group study in LA or playing pictionary or UNO and mafia in SAC, we really had a great time together. Be happy and all the best for the future. And haa, abb to koi ladki pata le kitne din aur FB be stalk karega..;)

Prabhat Chowdhary : apollo this is houston !! Band of brothers fanboy multitasks even when he is chilling-watching friends and playing fifa. We have been a trouble to each to each other for 2 years sharing a room. We have shared crazy times, a mouse enters the room at 4 in the morning and I am waiting outside, chilling, waiting for your call, and then I hear you shouting on top of your voice. I would give anything to go back to those days.

Sandeep Narayanan : Pukkar, the brainy! With u there to guide in PE, Houston, we dont have any problem, we have only solutions! TA Lipo of PEPS! From bulbul telling me not to take course if you are also taking the same, to our funtrips, bowling, night-walks, ISS spotting at H-13 balcony and movie eve in H-18, time flew very fast. Wish time will fly fast again in your journey from Pune to Houston. P.S. Will miss u a lot, and our competition in stalking cutie!!!

Deepthi Pratti : I knew u as that senior who knew everything. I never imagined that we would become this good friends (I'm happy that we are, now 😊 thanks to those walks and games and mafia sessions 😊). U are one of a kind. I really like the way u spend time and put efforts for the things u love and feel passionate for. U are a humble, down to earth and a go-to friend. Thank you for helping me always, teaching me BLDC motor before the interview and submitting my resume for walk-in 🙏 And the way u relate everything to technical world is seriously amazing and hilarious at times 😂 (no offense 😊) And thanks for all those movie sessions in your room. Always loved them 🥰❤️ PS- Don't ask if u can borrow a tissue 🙏👧😂

Harsh Kumar Bhargav : Pushkar bhai, space enthusiast, fifa lover and a hard working person. I remember only those 2 or 3 games of fifa jisme maine tere ko haraya tha nahi to tu kha jeetne deta h :P. A true barcelona fan and bhakt of messi. Wish u all d best bhai :) always be happy
