Patel Sayan : Nalayak

Pranil Joshi : Vineet! I love that you are literally always smiling and happy. That happiness spills over to the people around you. Also, your jokes SUCK, but I'll still miss those. My best memories with you are from Sem 6, middle block, 1st and 2nd row xD. Plus, processor design. You made all classes fun! You are the ghatiest ghati I know. 4th year mein bhi har hafte ghar jaata hoga lol. You're probably a great person to just hang out with, I am hoping tere jaisa koi toh mil hi jaaye main jahaan bhi jaau. Enjoy your final year of insti!

Allen Bose : Vineet!! I used to see this species only in two modes prior it went to Singapore: Study mode and Sleep mode. But you really changed after you went there dude (I really want to know if someone hit you on the head with a rod). I know we didnt even get 3 months after that, but we had so much fun in the wing together. We started going out, ordering together more etc even though we all were floors and wings apart. It's sad that we couldn't play FIFA much after you BC ed into elec. But my game has gotten far stronger and I am gonna kick your ass for sure next time. PS: I will be in Mumbai itself, we need to go on more trips

Pushan Bal : You are literally the first person who has been there to hear some of the most happening things in my life. Mai lecture ja raha hota tha with some news (dying to tell someone) and aap mil jate the. Interns lagne ki news shayad aapko hi sabse pehle mili hai, even before my wingies. You are a happy guy who keeps smiling even when he is on a helical path with non-zero slope(you should get it!) I love and envy your optimism. I wish you would have stayed in meta, would have loved your company but DIC ke baad wo to possible nahi tha. To the guy jisne DIC me top kiya, and then BC mar li. Stay in touch man. Keep doing great things in life. Cheers!

Bhishma Dedhia : Samundar mein doobki lagakar nikala coco cola, bhai dikhta hai bhola but lafde uske sola xD I am one of the few people who knows iss shareef shakal ke peeche ka gaandu. Freshie year se apna backchodhi chaalu hai but 4th sem was where it peaked. Voh bandar vaala scene hamesha yaad rahega! Jitni bakchodhi tu pelta hai utna hi acads machata hai. Tere saath baat karke kaafi de-stress hota tha mein. Mess mein baithkar apni bakar miss karunga. LCH to hostel walks bhi miss karunga <3 Bas final year tu bhaag gaya semex par. But the reunion in KK's concert was epic! Final year macha dena and hamesha touch mein rehna!
