Priya Kumar : Hi Neeraja :-D You are probably the calmest, kindest and the most innocent friend I've ever had. I will remember our adventurous, rather dreadful PR round to South Bombay via the locals 😊 I will also keep our late-night talks and holiday plans in Kerala in my memory. You are very hardworking and you have a great sense of conscience and responsibility. Glad to have a friend like you, don't change :-) All the best for your future. It will be bright for sure :-D

Pradip Karmakar : hey neerja , i am always grateful to get u as my lab partner.. U r the best and most perfect labmate in this world ... i was fastest and u were slowest but accurate which made our group fastest, perfect , and accurate!! thanks for always tolerating me and guiding me everywhere like my own sister ... ! i hope u wont forget "fast neerja fast" tagline haha ... there are lot of memories we have throughout IITB , those are unforgettable ... u always listened to all of my crazy talks all the time , i needed to tell same thing in 3 languages mostly and that was fun though always stay in touch and wish u best luck for all of your future endeavors

Abhishek Shaw : Hiii Neerja....You are most innocent, calmness and pure hearted girl...We spent very little time together during these 2 years. Sorry It is my fault. I hope you get success in all your dreams. I really want to visit Kerala..will you invite me to your home?

Sreyashi Mandal : You are one of a kind. You are calm, composed, compassionate, sharp, strong, hardworking and everything magical that can exist in a human being. You are so pure and you care deeply about the people around you. Some of the days at IIT B were so hard but your hug and warm smile somehow made things bearable. Your indomitable willpower was and is a constant inspiration for me. I am so lucky that I got to know you and I love you so freaking much! I hope all your dreams come true. You deserve nothing less than that. :)

Manukrishna Manikandan : Hey Neerja, u may have an appetite of a child but brains of a wizard. If I happen to write a dictionary, a synonym for 'friend'/'mentor' would be 'Neerja'. Hard working, loyal and brimming with etiquette. Loads & loads of luv....

Sumedha Ghosh : I cannot express how much i adore your simplicity and honesty. I have not come across people like you since a very long time. You are a gem. You are beyond this materialistic world. I did not even imagine a person like you would be my roommate-so simple, so disciplined, so down to earth and what not. There is a lot to learn from you. I wish we could have spent some more time together. We were supposed to go out together for dinner after midsem. Things ended so abruptly that I could not say you a fine goodbye. I wish i could have known you better. I was not in the room maximum time and i very well recall how much you used to miss me. sorry i could not make it up to your expectations. Miss u♥
