Laxmi Thawkar : Hey, it was really fun working with you in Abhyuday, you are one of the best managers I worked with 😊❤️

Abhinav Jain : The only person who actually studies in CC ;p I seriously wonder, isko naam yaad nhi hote toh courses kaise yaad rehte hai? But even then talking to you has always been fun, hamesha hackathon enthu rakhne waali devi ko pranam _/_

Riya Singh : Hello Xlr8 me 2nd aane waale bade log!! Meri ek cousin ka naam bhi Ashi h jiski wajah se shuru se tmse apnapan lagta tha. sath me H15 ke common room me endsems ke liye padhne se humari dostii shuru hui and fir 1st year summer me athletics me kaafi yaadgar waqt sath me bitaye. 3rd sem cs minor ke assignments karne ke liye ek-dosron ko motivate karna. Mess me khane ke table par apne past and future ke serious discussion ya phir faltu ka rona. Aur kuchh nhi toh Chitrangna ko sath mil kar daatna. Insti journey became a lot better with a friend like you. All the best and stay in touch.

Ritika Agrawal : Hey Ashi! Thanx for all the tips and advices be it related to courses, resume or intern prep. Aapka caring nature will always be remembered, and of course TF, tab se hi toh pehchaan hui! Tension kam liya karo bas thodi :p Stay the same caring person always and keep smiling!

Veerupaksh Singla : Ashi, maggu max. 'Mereko kuch ni aata', also DR1. Lecture me sote hue bhi sunne waali, kaise karti hai 🙏. Design course assignment karenge na apan 😂. Kaafi sorted priorities, always humble and supportive 🙌. E-Cell ke time kaafi random time pass kiya aoan ne. And then winters me ecell waalo ka abhyuday roome me aake time pass karna and vice versa 😂

Nautatava Navlakha : You might not know this but insti life me you're the first girl I talked to. Kaafi maggu type si but I must say kaafi badal gayi after 3rd year. Much more confident, bold. Kisne socha tha aisa bhi din aayega jab Ashi classes bunk karegi, exams late jaayegi coz padhayi nahi hui. Seriously the first year studies and uske baad minors, kaafi maze aaye tere saath. P.S: Apne contacts me mere naam ki spelling sahi karde xD

Adhishree Apte : Hiii!! I always felt good talking to you. Liked to hear your frank opinions. So approachable, honest and easygoing.

Shreya Agarwal : Ashi..... Conversations over meals in H10 (H11 on pest control days :P) with you always highlighted your unique perspective and take on life. I admire your enthusiasm to constantly explore new things and willingness to come out of your comfort zone. Running , reading , coding and smiling are some things I associate you with :) . All the very best for your future endeavours ! Stay in touch !

Saman Siddiqui : Ashiiiiii <3 From pushing each other to study for exams to eating meals in the mess in a hurry to catch the class (:P) we've sadly passed out! You're always going to be someone who I respect the most. Bahot kuch seekha hai tumse, and I really want us to always stay conncted! Woh raat bhar assignment khatam karna while stealing Mrigank ka khana humesha yaar rahe ga :P Love you so much, stay this awesome always! <3

Jovina Vaswani : It is strange how we suddenly became so close and willing to let each other in our life's secrets, but I am thankful that this happened. The more I got exposed to the details of your life, the more of love and respect I started harboring for you. You are a sweet and gentle soul, with a pure heart. I cherish every moment spent with you. You have bailed me out of crisis, and made sure you do whatever you can. Your happiness is contagious, and so is your grit.
