Aprajita Shukla : Well we started with fighting for our common favourite person and ended with fighting even more over the same person! You exceeded every bit of boundry which was still left by eating a spoon full of ketchup! That was devastating! Torturous! No matter how much I hate you for having to share my favourite person with you, but i can also not forget how you made her feel head over heels. And because of that I can keep all my anger aside and simply appreciate you for the kind of person you are! It was nice meeting you! We will keep our cold fight on! Until the doomsday! (May be in afterlife as well, I'm cool with that) Wishing you a great future ahead! And it was really nice getting to know you!

Lisha Awasthi : Phle bewakof lgta tha bhola bhi😂...but pta lg chuka hai chantu tere baare mae... I like your simplicity and care for others... Best quality is you don't wish any changes in people 🥹... Aur teri mummy k haath ka khana aur home visit are the best memories.... Aur tere pyaara bhai ♥.... ganpati visit i can't forget.... Aur haa khana khana ♥♥♥... Stay same senti sushi🍣😂😂
