Pradip Karmakar : ya, i call u the most idious, boring (of course for watching tarak mehta whatever) human but honestly u were the reason i survived in IITB , m lucky to get u as my bestest frnd in the world .. i hate u for ur excessive helpfulness or dedication towards anything or helping everyone without thinking (one ex- abhyuday work!!) there are lots , but this is what i love too, this dedication, selflessness, cheerfulness always a good part of u ; koi v movie dekna ho, broring lag raha hai toh tere room pe chale jana, watching tiktok videos besides u :), was fun ..for momories be it tour, bkchodi, bday cake, pujo, exam prep, whatever from sem 1 to now is not expressible in this short space :) ...

Sagar Baulia : For tau eka Mr Shaw..litb diaries is that i can say he is roomie for me for almost 2 years sharing the daring night of hostel 8 when an (ox)banged on the opposite side of the door and on the other side our very own tau(another ox 🤔 u know what I mean) daring to open the door and me requesting not to open it.Then from taking ur practicals and changing it in my own language so that I should never get caught never doing proper homework to write pracs which u did ... Then taking care of mine during biophysics and C programming which I was absent most the classes , altogether u were a the pillar that I will fall on when things go bad .. to last min exam prep and suggestion that I got from u w Sreyashi Mandal : Being around you has always felt like being around my own little brother. You have always been so kind and helpful. I loved how you pushed me and Datta to go for Salsa night in Sem 3 and also your concerns like, "tora shob shob shomoy friends der shathe movie dekhish, kokhono nijera o eka eka dekhteh ja"! That was just so sweet of you. You understand the struggles of being in a relationship more than anyone else in our class! What else? Wish you all the best for your future and I hope you get to marry the girl you are so hopelessly in love with. :)

Titash Baidya : I know you far before from BSc. You are a phoenix who arose above all ashes. Epitome of innocence and purity. Rank 1 in IIT JAM yet soo much humble!!! Wish you become great like a banyan tree and in your shadow people get their salvation and peace. There is a smile always in your face, no pain, hardness or anything can break you. And your tenacity in studies was like an unbreakable world record. And your sweet voice and Mariana trench like deep knowledge in classical music. I along with my whole family is very fortunate that we have been able to listen to a song sung by you...

Maayla Siddiqi : Haa abhishek abhi sab thik hai... haha! . Starting me tereko samjh nahi payi thi me i found your behaviour a little weird but as the time passed, i realised you were such a kind hearted, lovely and a caring boy. Itni fast bengali bolta hai tu ki kya bolu me. Your love for suji is a prime example of how loyal couples can be even in a long distance relationship. I wish that bond never breaks. Thank you for always holding my hand during trekking. Teri awaz boht surili hai kisi din indian idol me try zarur kariyo, the nation will be so proud of you. I wish you all the best for your future. Don't tense too much. You will do good one day Inshallah!

Nilanjan Bose : One the few people I saw who has such clarity in thoughts..he is like my neighbour..so much down to earth..doesn't think twice before helping others..i remember one night..when i was late in returning from lab..i just called him once..he came downstairs and kept the dinner for me on the table..when i want a cricket match..tau is there first knocking at my door..he has the intellect to brainstorm your thinking about a topic..i know his all dreams will come true in life..

Rohan Kumar Parida : hey brother, one of my closest friend from IITB. I think nobody has helped me more than this guy. Top ranker, hard working and punctuality describe this person. sab karega lekin innocence k saath. His hardwork helps some students during last minute preparation. U wr always thr by my side whenever i needed. There r a lot of memories which cant be described in words. Those movie-nights and late night maggi parties will always be there in my memories. Dont worry about the results. U will surely get rewarded for ur hard work. be happy & enjoy ur life. bday bash milna abhi baaki h. jab v milega wahin dhulaai hoga. Nahi bhulunga me. Jab tak h jaan 🤔🤔🤔

Lisha Awasthi : Hey Abhishek!!! You may not realise but have been important for me.. i never tie rakhi to anybody other than my own brother but i did in your case..i had high fever that day still i came as i really adore you...but just like saying "people who are close to you can hurt you the most" i got really affected when you wrote that comment on Apni class group.. Anyway i want to tell that you still holds that special space..just a piece of advise, don't get carried away with others opinion but keep this innocence forever...wishing best for you like always 🥹

Soumili Sarkar : oiiiiiii AIR1. Sweetest soul,sweetest face, sweetest smile and definitely sweetest and one hell of a melodious voice on this Earth XD. Of course I can never not see AIR 1 🤔 The initial idea that I had of AIR 1, that you'd be a snob or a rude person with abrasive behaviour: thank Heavens, you're exactly the opposite! You're incredibly hardworking and prove your mettle most of the time when it comes at that! Khali tension ta beshi korish ektu, ota chaar! Haan r tui amar bhai r e moto, and if I ever find anything wrong, Suji k toh ami bolbo e! 🙄 May you always achieve what you want and excel in whatever you do! Keep in touch! 😊
