Riya Singh : You were the 1st person whom I met in insti too.. Football sessions stopped write after you purchase the shoes XD. Though our interaction in 1st year was very limited. It was from the Kalsubai trip when I realised you people are also not "sareef" and I became pseudo-wingie of your wing. And that night was too awesome and you are very comfortable pillow ;p I don't remember how competition between us for Himani's love started but it was too much fun to have romantic disputes at mess times. I hate admitting but you are sweet as sugar. Infact I have never seen/heard of you fighting with someone. Stay like this forever <3

Himani Gangurde : Major missing T Partiessss 💔. Pseudo roomie and then roomie, what a journey! Random walks to savior the for all the bullshit days. And the late night movie amd snacks 🍕. You know the bond is real when even canteen wala bhaiya asks "dusra wala kidhar hai"😂 sedly apna mountain dew bowling dobara na hopaya 🙄. 1st year me bhai bane aur final year tak behen ban gaye🙄 Kya se kya hogaye dekhte dekhte 😊 Since baaki sab tune mention kar hi diya h, looking phorvard to next t partiiaiiii phoxxx 🎉

Vaishnavi Gupta : Tujhe kya laga, bas 7th sem bt hua to baaki sab bhul jayenge ... 1st yr se tujhe tang kar rhi hu tere room pe aa kar classic jokes suna sunakar 😊 golgi body, tera scary "eyes", ek dusri ki jam kar lena, always sarcastic comebacks, pizza bday cake, bnb treats ye sab yaad rhega.. Jo vo earphones hain kaafi special gift h vo mere liye...tu na hoti to 'roli' ko kaise akele jhelti :p bohot support kiya tune after the bday thing .. listening to old hindi songs n cooking, smoke detector xD infi bakchodi aur bohot kuch ♥ stay in touch?

Mrinal Agarwal : "Hi Bhavya" Yhi message bhej bhejke meine bhot pareshan kia hai apko 😂 Although you were my damp mentor for my second year, I decided to be your mentee for the rest of my time in insti. But now I am thinking ki insti k baad bhi pareshan kr hi lungi thora 😊. Thanku so much for listening to me everytime and helping me out in all the ways possible for whatever problem I had. And obviously apke nakshe kadam pe chalne ka poor try krungi 😊. Thanku again. All the very best aane wale time k liye ♥

Abhirup Majumdar : Bhavya beti, masti nahi!! I remember we interacted for the first time when we destroyed people's careers in the TT intra during our 2nd year. Teri sense of humour kaafi gawd level hai, you can totally take down the universe with those sassy comebacks. Cats are gonna rule this world one day.

Sayali Kshirsagar : Hiii Bhavyaaaa! Tu kaafi amazing hai. First year me tere bina lecture hall and CS dept nahi pohach paati XD. You are very creative. I love your paintings. You are really very brilliant and dedicated. Mai tere room me aake baitha karti thi. It was so fun. Tere jokes. Hansi rukti hi nahi. You are so calm and cheerful and chilll. I remember our sessions how we used to motivate each other regarding academics and career. I hope you achieve all your goals. Stay the same confident person. Let's definitely make more memories when we meet in Gurugram.<3

Sukanya Kudva : Bhavyaji, aapki badi aankhen hamesha yaad rahegi..😂. And your numerous other pics too....It's weird how you always hurt that one same leg. Remember Kalsubai? All of us ended up dragging you on a chair through your wing. It was crazy. I'm not sure how we always end up talking about women's health, periods and coping up... maybe because I still crib about things like I did in fresh year😂. I'll not forget the time I spent with you Himani.♥ It was fun watching you both quibble, crack jokes and somehow manage to synchronise your reactions too(always wondered how) . You know, you changed quite a bit since fresh year. And I am glad you did:). you have become more strong and accepting of things. Good luck to you! Keep in touch♥

Sowmya Ravichandran : Hi Bhavya! I love all the times that we get together, over someone's birthday for instance, and just hang out for a while, and of course roast Vaishnavi :P. I will remember you the most for your sketches - you're amazing at it and keep doing them. And of course do call me too if you plan on getting Mekhala to talk :P. Keep in touch <3

Anupradiksha Rajan : Tera sense of humour bahut mast hai yaar. First year me Himani ke saath tere room pe aake padne ke Naam pe jokes pe Hasna aur timepass karna. Uske Baad apna 'exam ke pehle dar nahi lag Raha, iska dar lagna' isme apna frequency match karta tha. Tere saath maza aaya, aage bhi aise hi sabko hasate reh, All the Best!!!

Mrunal Chavan : Yo Bhavya!! Thanks to Kalasubai trek I got to know u. Bohot bura laga tha when u had to stop in between bt well d complete journey was amazing. Kafi superb sketches karti hain tu. Tune jo eagle ka sketch kia tha I liked that a lot, the eyes were infi fierce nd awesome. 😊😊 It ws fun talking to you nd Himani, well mostly sath he to dikhte the dono. 😊 U r a vry calm nd sweet person. Machate rehna life mai hamesha, I hope u achieve all ur goals. All d vry best and stay in touch. ♥♥

Alok Kumar : "Bhavya machaati hai!!!" That's all there was to say. From sharing notes to being DGSec and handling events you have done countless thankless things for the batch as well as the dept. _/__. From memes to comebacks your game was always on point. Missing all the planned trips and photo shoots. But fikar not humara time aane me abhi time hai. Keep up your positivity and all the best for good times ahead.
