Abhinav Jain : NSS == Yash! Kisi random point in life pe baat karna start karne se lekar aadhe din ek dusre ke room pe padha rehna, bhai sahab meko aloo bhujia ki aadat kaise nhi lagi abhi tak chamka hi nhi. Baaki rona dhona toh ek saal aur chalega apna, abhi this time just thank you for being the one who looked out for me even when I didn't want to talk to anyone. H1 canteen jaate rahenge and tere dimaag aage bhi khaayega mai :-D

Kushagra Kacholia : Sir, aapke jitna kind, sincere, hardworking, aur down to earth insaan koi nahi hai. Bhale hi kitne bhi busy ho, dusron ki madad karne ke liye hamesha tayyaar rehte ho aap jo ki aapko dusron se kaafi alag and behtar banati hai! Bas thoda hasna zyaada start kardo, and take things one at a time. Exam ke time hamesha same LC me hi we ended up padhne ke liye, woh baat ki hamesha yaad aayegi. All the best for everything sir, life me khud aage jao aap 🙏

Sanskriti Shah : Aloo bhujia ka fan, and fafda ek baar me chat krleta h ye insaan. Maggi mein bhi aloo bhujia daalne waala. You are the sweetest !! Kitna machau h but utna hi modest bhi h, humble hai and kitna helpful. I have learnt a lot from you. And kitni bhare kavita e likhta hai. Stay the same amazing, sweet person. Me wo teri (namak mirch waali) banai hui maggi khane aungi next yr pkka.

Debanjali Chatterjee : Yash, Yearbook asks me to "tell this person what he means to you"... how can I ever express that in 700 characters? Bas itna jaan lo: dil ke bohot achhe ho tum, tumhare jaisa doosra shaayad hi koi mile duniya mein. Insti mein "machau" shabd ke kai meanings hain, you are "machau" in your own way (explanation mat maango, just trust me on this). Believe in yourself, and you'll find yourself reaching heights that you never imagined you would. And finally, Poynting uncle ko thanks kehte huye ye last line tumhare liye: "When it hasn't been your day, your week, your month, or even your year, I'll be there for you, 'cuz you're there for me too" :D

Animesh Singhal : When I think of you, three words come to my mind: Dedication, Composure, and Persistence. Look how you've grown over the years mate! Thanks for always being responsive and offering a helping hand whenever I've looked up to you. Isn't that evident by the fact you were honored for being the best mentor? You've touched a lot of lives in your Insti life and I will always wish good things for you <3

Bohra Ankit Narendra : Arey Yash Sir _/__. You are one of the most humble, sweetest, helping and innocent person i have met. A really really hardworking person. Aapne jo apne intern pe kiya tha woh mein kabhi soch nahi sakta tha ki aap kar sakte ho XD. Memes banate raho aur bhejte raho sir. Aise poha banake khilana baaki reh gaya hai. Aapke liye alag respect hai sir. Aapne bahot zyaada machaya hai and aage bhi machate rehna. All the best for future. Stay in touch!!

Kafi humble and hardworking. I hope ME651 me jyada give up na hua ho tera mere questions ke chakkar me :P. Apne interactions have been quite random and varied. F1 convos I legit love tere saath, although tu uski knowledge me thoda kaccha hai :P. One thing I'd like to suggest- have more self confidence. thoda apne aap me believe kar and you'll be even more machau. I really hope we'll stay in touch for a long long time. All the very best bhai <3 . I am waiting for the day when I can say vo famous banda Yash mera dost hai. Macha de!

Kushal Agarwal : T Rajan! Bhai tu bahut mast insaan hai. Kisi ko nahi dekha saamne se Bolte huye ki 'Bhai tune assignment nahi kiya toh ruk mai bhej deta hu'♥ Last day tips before the exams and all the notes you helped me out with. Thank you bro!

Sumanth Kandala : Kya hi bolun yaar tere baare mein. Jo bhi bolun, kam hi hoga! You are one of the most hardworking person I've ever met. One of the best things in Canada during my summer internship was the Niagara trip and I am thankful that you were there along with me! Hope future mein bhi aise kaafi trips ho! Infi help ki hai tune meri inn chaar saal. Thanks yaar for everything! P.S. I still remember that 3rd sem mein tu hamesha bolta tha "Yaar tune mera branch change kata diya :P". Hope you are finally over it! After all, you get to spend one more year in Insti!

Kriti Kamna : 1 saal ruk tu

Shreyas Chaudhari : A very friendly, humorous, and also serious in the group. and kabhi kabhi angry hota to kabhi give-up ho jata tha. RG bhi mast kar leta tha minor me, night study fir subah call karke uthata and always complaining about how badly you performed in exams and fir macha deta tha. Agar kisi ko insti ke Titanic ka ticket lena ho to Yash ko contact karo 😊😂.

Harshwardhan Mourya : Rajan sale, can't think of a single name except mummy jisne meko itne baar jagaya hoga neend se. Right from the start of first year. I remember we met when your chacha was there in H16. And uske baad what a journey it had been. Boi, you're the guy i've learned the most from in insti, and believe me, no proff come any near in the list. The best motivator ever, even better than sandeep M. and my dearest friend. So much memories hai tumhare saath, shabd kam pad jayenge. The best thing I remember now is that how everytime we've fought (literal fist fights sometimes), things resolved in such a way that only made our friendships stronger. And also Naja, that've been one of the best memories i've made in this insti. I think you're The most hardworking guy in insti. Bahut inspire karte ho re... Ab ye batao Billu kab rewatch karna hai 😊

Shantanu Thada : Yash! First of all I am extremely happy to be collaborating with you! DAMP meeting me apne first interaction me hi samajh aa gaya tha that you are one of the most sensible and sweet people of insti! I am glad that we discussed our research on the first day itself and we are finally collaborating! And as professional are you with your work, you have been a great friend personally too! Exam ke ek din pehle padhaya tha EN642 ki <3. Do not change this and I am sure there are great things coming your way! I will always be happy to help you with any problems you have! And let's finish that paper soon! Love <3

Hemant Kumawat : Hey Rajan!! We both have seen each other's ups and downs in this journey and for the most part, I believe we both were there for each other. Our friendship has been like that of Sheldon and Leonard. We used to annoy, ridicule, and bash each other constantly but still, we both care and love each other. Our silly fights over small things like tube light or room cleaning were like an episode of Big Bang Theory, Leonard getting angry/irritated with Sheldon and then both compromising a little to sort the things. In fact, we even had an informal verbal roommate agreement like them in our first year. Thanks for your pieces of advice and help. Also, I am glad I met your Mom and Dad, their motivational words would always cheer me up. I hope we remain connected for years to come.

Pujan Biswas : Itna sorry kyun bolta hai bhai, bank bana leta hoon uska. Akshay Kumar ne bola tha Darr accha laga, bhai tune toh dil pe hi le liya :P Mujhe pata hai yeh YB ka karte huey bhi tu 4 project simultaneously kar raha hoga, toh darra kisse hai be. Canada ka Maple Syrup nahi mila mujhe :(But, tere saath kaam karke, same hostel mai reheke pata chala ki where humans matter the most, you are a gem there, the heart! Jab aap 10-20 paper nikaal lo, I'll be in your audience. Keep confidence in yourself, keep smiling, and past ko bhool jaa, jitna tu fail hoga utna hi tu bounce back karke succeed karega bhai! Bas tere character ko kabhi taint mat hone dena & keep the positive vibes going. Yours, Bisso!

Deepak Gopalan : Yo Rajan! You are a huge part of my first-year memories. I'm sure I'll remember our, shall we say, "civilized" fights for a long, long time to come :) I sure do miss passing "kind" notes from under the room door lol. Thankfully, we grew out of that phase and got kaafi close :) At the start of the first year, you were a really mixed-bag of a person. In fact, I used to be kaafi worried about you. But throughout the years, I have seen you transform so so much! I have seen you go from worrying about your own issues to helping others (including me) deal with theirs! I am really proud to call you my friend. Kabhi time banaya kar for your old buddies, I and Hemant miss you a lot, man! I'm looking forward to the time when the three of us are doing PhDs in the US, and tu waha pe bhi plans ditch karega lol.

R Sucheta : Next year! All in good time O:)

Vikrant Nagpure : Sir, aapke jitna first year me rona aur second year se machane wala nhi dekha. Mere last sem ki aapke aur abhinav ke saath late night walks yaad rahenge, kafi deep aur intense discussion the vo xD. Stay in touch :) Machate toh ho hi aap :D

Anumay Ashish : Yo Rajan, seriously pta nhi chala apan kab itne close friends ban gaye... ME 102 ke assignments se life problems ke discussion par kab aa gaye chamka hi nhi. But haan tu tension mat le, tu machata hai aur machate hi rahega....yaad rakhna and haan jab man kare call karlena, apan kaafi bitching karlenge Baaki Mech god toh tu hai hi

Sayan Roy : Yash, you are one of many awesome people I got to know in campus. My TA days were made enjoyable because of your inputs. I enjoyed having discussions with you, your insights were far-sighted. Hope to be in touch with you in future.

Kinjal Saxena : Oye rotlu! You've been one of the few most matured people I have seen in insti life. In these 4 years I feel proud ke koi mujhse zyada rone waala mil gaya mujhe :P. Rona band kr pls. And always remember, there are people who can do anything for you! You've taught me so many life lessons dude.. I remember once you understood from my expressions that I was feeling low in fluids lab and you understood the reason as well.. tab tune mujhe agneepath sunai thi! Then, you taught me the most important lessons about interacting with 'humans' :P, about relations and about pursuing anything till the end. Thanks for being so awesome! I can never forget our time in Canada! You will get everything you want Shubhankar Mihir Seth : Yash sir, your dedication, simplicity, and commitment to doing the right thing is just amazing. You've been an inspiration, and honestly, it's an honor to call you a friend. From banking on you for this entire degree to sharing deeply personal experiences over poetry, this whole journey would not have been the same without you. Moreover, you're such a terrific mentor, you didn't need the title to have an impact, and honestly, it's been an absolute privilege having you on the team. Here's hoping that we keep meeting, that you lead DAMP to greater heights, that life takes you wherever you want to go! But please don't stop writing, some of your work keeps me going!

Vardhil Mehta : ek saal ruk. aur majedar content banega! xD

Navnit Kumar : Agle saal character limit km pad jaayenga tere liye Yrbk me

Nautatava Navlakha : T, how can I ever forget you. You are like that one brother a lucky person gets in college. India caring, infii hardworking, infii enthu and india achaa friend. I still remember the infii amazing CST nightout jab hamne mumbai ki baarish ko khule aam jhela tha, the tarkarli trip, the core team meets, the late night walks, the NGO visits and so many things we share. You easily make up the best mentor award given you not only mentor them but find solutions to all my problems too. Ab rona kam kar do(i know tera workload dekh ke jitna rona chahiye usse bohot kam rota hai but still.) and life me thoda chill maar liya kar. Good luck for placements. Mumbai me hu milte rahenge pakke se!

Rupesh DNE : You are so so sweet person. I can still remember as a freshie, you used to work so so hard, worry about small things and always felt like overloaded with studies. Oh wait, you are still the same. And I just wish you to be what you are and remain part of our group 4ever.

Anmol Singh : Chuheeeeeee! Even before we actually met, jitna Kriti se sun rakha tha uss se tere liye pehle hi respect si thi🙏. Baaki asli dosti to bhai apni actually college life ke aakhri 2 months mein jakar hi hui & bhai kya bond kare apan🔥. Seriously chai ki pyali par kya mast bachpan ka flashback hua tha apna♥️. Ab to tere hi room par aa kar gupshup hua karegi agle saal se 😊. Baaki yaar tu har ek cheez mein mast machata hai, be it academics, mentoring or dosti nibhana. Bas ek cheez sudhar le, rona kam kar le😭. Life perfect ho jayegi teri (may be reduce down that weight of yours as well😭), well may be not the face though😭. Anyways needless to say, touch mein rehna and best wishes for your future.
