Writasree Maitra : The calm and ever-smiling boy! I've never seen you without a smile on your face- that's the best thing about you! I'll remember all the little chats with you; I wish we had talked a little more! Keep on smiling; stay happy. Have a beautiful and prosperous life ahead; achieve every single goal of your life. All the very best!

Amrit Prittam Nayak : Honestly, it took quite a month to remember your complete name but then "chiggi" was enough. I can barely remember a day when I have seen you worried about anything. The smile with which you greeted is a reflection of your benevolence. The casual talk along the corridor or mess always gave a noice (the word that I added to your vocabulary 😊) feeling. You simple nature is elegant in itself. Have a great life ahead and definitely keep in touch.

Avari Roy : Hey Venkat, You are such a nice and sweet person. You remind me of the NET exam day.. I am sure you remember it too! I was never more surprised than that day, seriously, in my life... It was a really nice time that we spent at the center. I remember you offering every edible item to me ;p You are such a good person. I feel really good being your friend. Stay well, stay healthy and fulfill every dream :D

Dibyanandan Bhowmick : Hallo Venkata.. Glad to meet you 🙌. The cool guy. The first thing that comes in mind for you, is your soothing voice, aptly in line with your serene personality. I like your speeches, be it for describing your project or in usual talks. You are one of those few people I mustered courage to talk to, and thank you for your cordial, sympathetic responses. You have been so helpful.. I remember that day, when you told me to lend your cycle to repair my bag and also the remark "I know people are quite busy here 😊." You taught me how does learning and confidence look like. Your calm yet strong persona is truly another lesson to learn. Thank You friend, for everything you taught me. All The Very Be
