Ayan Choudhary : Sirji MAC se hi apan logo ki dosti kayam ho gyi thi :D. You have an extremely helpful and chilled out attitude. H6 me yuhi chalte-firte milna and mess ki small talks yaad rhengi :)... Startup macha dena bilkul <3. Last me bas yahi puchunga,"Matlab Aap chasma nahi dengi?? :P

M Vishnu Sankar : Yo Mentorji...Thank you so much for helping me out during my sophie year. Waise treat kab dene wale ho XD. Have a fun and adventurous life ahead.

Aashay Biyani : Patil!!!! Jai Maharashtra!!! My hostel life wouldn't have been as much fun without your sarcasm and self-obsessiveness. You have been great help. Thank you and will miss you....

Krishna Wadhwani : Vikram Sir!! Our bond started with "Mere gully mein" (as we didn't interact much during our school days) and then grew with various discussions, SciPy conference, ideating on AI based Sumo game in Library and then spending so much time playing those childish online sumo matches, Teams Noobiesoft ('pretty sure we will win'😂) and KVK (never expected to win anything in this case😂), the umbrella incident in 4th year, doing everything but that in the name of Graphics assignments, laughing our asses off in the 1st FEM class while discussing some paytm stories😂and so many more things. You are one of the most creative, funny, friendly and self-possessed person I know. Will definitely miss you ♥.

Saurabh Meena : Dovaogedys Vikram!!! Bc first year se aapko hi jaanta tha Vikings se, saare seniors se milaya aapne. Duniyaa bhar ka gyaan hai aapke paas, har cheez ka gyaan hai bc. Movies, shows, books, padhai, sports, bakchodi, sab kuch. Bc kitna sikha diyaa aapne in do saalo me. Poora do saal me almost aapke hi room me tha, kitne shows dekhe, kitni biryani khaayi aur bc kahaniyon ka toh pucho hi mat(sharma gaand maarlenge warna). Gyaan dete rehna bhut zaruri hai aur bus ek baar cheese burst square pizza aur biryani khaani hai aapke saath xD.

Kushal P Yadav : Come on.. tell everyone that you and Krishna were friends since school times! People need to know the truth, they have been ignoring it for too long. Makes sense, two of the coolest guys I know were school friends and traded their skills. Aage bhi films banate rehna and best of luck for your startup man!

Tushar Kumar : Yooo...Vikram..(Modiji I love you) to latest (Shaanpati) kaafi bkc ki hai humne. Roasting to disussion on movies,TV series and rant/debate on election (Country waala...xD) kaafi fun rha. Keep inspiring and carry on the good work. I will hail you as the brave man to walk down the new path (your startup). Stay the same always.

Varun Sule : You've been hard to track down in insti, especially lately with everything you've been busy in, but I've had the most uplifting and engrossing conversations whenever I have connected with you. Your drive to help others has definitely inspired me. Apla wetness (or was it dryness) sensor kasa banavla nehmi lakshat rahil, since you know, that was the most complicated thing I made in my entire life :). Next time we meet, I will call Rally for Rivers once and for all, so there's something to look forward to.

Abhinav Jain : Yo Vikram, the kewl attitude wala banda who wanted to be a mentor since first year(proud of you!). We didn't interact much after the first year but even then those memories of every interaction have been fun. First year mein cracking schoolmates with Krishna wala joke was the best! Add a giant squid to the mix and perfect fantasy school xD. All the best for the future man!!!

Sumit Chaturvedi : Sending you thoughts and prayers

Somansh Chordia : Patil saheb! Kya personality hai yaar teri. Koi ek baar bhi mila hoga toh nahi bhulega tujhe. Maybe that's why even small meets in H6 corridors seem like a lot of memories. Teri story telling skill ke wajah se MAC ke kisse sunne me aur bhi maza aata. From how to shake hands to taking major life decisions, you influence a lot of people in many aspects of life. I admire your courage to do what you feel is correct and not worry about other's opinions. I'm sure tu kaafi kuch achieve karega life me. All the best :D

Nitish Joshi : Yo Vikram! Kay mast personality aahe raao tujhi. You were one of the few people who could get on my nerves with all that discrimination stuff (you know what I mean :P). From the game development in first year (😂) to you showing off your english vocab, to all those random discussions in room and mess, to you always forcing me to watch random youtube videos, there are a lot of small memories. I have learnt a lot from our discussions and it was always great talking to you. With your strong principles in life, I'm sure you'll do great. Phakt pudhe motha politician jhalyavar amchya sarkhya lokanna visaru nako. Stay in touch!

Viral Shah : Vikram Sir !!! Appka dedication level dekh ke toh shak hota hai ki koi itna kaise kar sakta hai... koi bhi group ho, jaan aap hi hote ho uski. Har kisi se baat karna, usko ko samajhna, ekdum connect baith jaata hai bhai kisi ka bhi tere saath. Remember NMCL ke time gand phati rehna, also you visited my room while i was half asleep dor that assignment... I hope we could have some more together, had a great time discussing things with you... All the best for the startup bro... Office toh kaafi sahi tha tumhara, multiply hote jai har saal yahi asha hai..

Kanishk Sinha : Hey Vikram, tere liye immense respect hai. Tera knowledge and ideation kaafi dope hai, and also your stress on even the tiniest details! I still remember your post-apocalyptic script and felt very bad ki we couldn't make that, because tbh I was very impressed with that idea. Oh and also, your sarcasm and sense of humour is awesome xD

Vibhor Jain : Wese toh aap kahi nahi jaa rahe.. par opportunity mili hai to likh deta hu, "Deadlines are important and we must and should follow it always" (this will cover all the GCs and film we have made together :p) #bleed_vikings #its_maharazzz

XD I'll miss having you around as "I constantly need people around me for validation". Your wannabe friend, Bisso!

Sharath Chandra Ale : Bhau!! Jai Bhavani! Jai Shivrui !! " Freshie year could never be that chaotic crazy without you. We could never run out of topics to talk or argue. Thanks for always listening to my thoughts and your guidance on my decisions. Tu kitna mature dikta hai utna hi harami bhi hai saala, sabko imitate karta hai viz. Fazal, me 😂😂. I miss shouting at your random intrusions into our rooms. Tere company me hame job dilade baabu bhaiyya.! Shivaji maharaj kisi no nahi bhulta. 🙄🙄

Siddhant Jadhav : Vikramark... Bhau ahe tu aapla. I can talk to you about anything and everything. It was always interesting to listen to your new plans. But it wasn't as funny when you troubled us 😊. I remember you always shouting my name "jaadhaaaavvv" when you used to be in our wing. And your whistle which even the security person remembers till date 😊. Film making me toh tune bohat machaya. But one of our award winning films is yet to release 😊. It was also stress relieving to talk about our fucked up lives. We'll miss insti because our lives will be more fucked up outside insti. But no worries, there exists no situation which can get us out of our bed early 😊. We'll still be the same. Many more plans ar

Nirbhay Wadiwala : Tune jaati pe bhed bhav kiya , tune bhasha pe bhed bhav kiya but humare dil main aapke liye jagah bani rahi ... dude hard to put to words what you mean to me .. crazy memories .. :)

Mihir Surve : Vikram! GC nahi ho rahi, meet rakhte hai, kab free ho xD? Aap log ne FnM secy ke standards already itne high rakh liye, ab kya hi koi reach kar paaye. Edgar Wright waali film to banaake hi chhodenge, aapke bina nahi though :p. Aapke Inter IIT wala idea bhi kaafi amazing tha, wo bhi karte hai kabhi! Baaki kya aapse baat to hoti rahegi, agle saal ka GC prep jo karna hai, meet attend karna pakka! All the best! Startup machaa dena! <3

Rohan Potdar : Patil Sirrr, kasa chalu ahe? Kadhi hi bhetlo tar enthu madhe astos, life madhe infi chill ahes! All the best for your startup! Bhetu nakkich!

Puri batch me tu hi sabse samajhdar banda lagta tha aur branch opener tha to laga tha hamesha DR 1 bhi tu hi rahega XD Bhed chaal me na chalkar hamesha apne liye alag raasta chunne ki teri khasiyat ne bohot inspire kiya hai! Aasha hai tu hamesha aise hi rahega aur hum touch me rahenge ♥
