Saloni Deodhar : Hey Tanvi, you're the reason H10 ever had any Goonj participation xD We had two amazing performances and its a shame we didnt get to do Purple Habibi this year too :(you're such a talented musician and you have some kick ass instruments. I dont know when we'll meet again, but I sure hope we do :')

Tanisha Joshi : Don't know where to start. I have your number saved as Tanvi VJTI Aero LnT IITB. (should I add Kafka?) 3 yrs ago when we called Pant Sir requesting an FYP, he said yes I know your college and I know it has good students because one of them, Tanvi is sitting in front of me. Since then its been an amazing journey with you. All the mentoring during the morphing project, advise on postgrad, helping me settle into the hostel life, lending me your German comics, taking my mock interviews and giving placement tips. THANK YOU FOR SO MANY THINGS. Even the memories, your talks about your travels and work; random catchup in mess, flying planes with Sohrab, and ofc Deustch fun with Palina. (WordLimitUgh
