Kushagra Kacholia : Broo apni mess ki baaten kaafi yaad aayengi, pata hi nahi chalta tha aur adhi ghante baithe rehte the. You're a really sweet, kind and caring person, always stay the same! Hoping to continue our deep talks about anything and everything. Apan ko sunny ya lakshmi sathme jana chahiye tha kabhi!!

Shah Parshva Kalpesh : Bro, cheers to all the amazing times we've spent together. Too many ups and downs to remember, but I'll cherish every memory. Keep in touch!

Animesh Singhal : Thanks to your advice in H2 canteen that day, I watched Friends and have reached Season 9 XD. Civil mates, to good old coordie days to the placement hustle! It has been a cherishing experience chilling with you. From "Mai day 12 tak bhi place nahi ho raha yaar" XD to interview fod ke aana, you've nailed it bro :'). Respect++

Kirtesh Ajay Gadiya : I want to extract some debating skills from you. Now our next goal will be to watch a International Test Match together! Keep debating! I regret going to Marine Drive after the match!

Rishi Rathie : Thanks for being such an awesome and supportive senior. Your dedication towards debating has been extremely inspiring for all of us juniors. The fun opening lines, among other witty antics of yours will surely be missed. Good luck! P.S: Always carry extra clothes while rafting in rishikesh xD.

Veerupaksh Singla : Khaitan fans hi! First year me kaafi interaction tha, fir bc ke baad kam ho gaya. But jab bhi milte the purani baate ko hi discuss karte the! Debate compi me katane ke liye sorry first year me 😊. Stay cool always!

Harsh Jain : Debate skills++.Best teachers are those whose students outgrow them.~kungfu Panda. Tunne Sociology mae pass kraya.(best teacher 😊). Apni random goa trip, 11-12 & walks. Baas chill kr tu life mae kaffi machayega. Milte rhna. Cheers!

Luv Nainwal : Broooo, you're the most hardworking guy who didn't get enough recognition, but I loved the fact that you kept pushing no matter what. I was the happiest person on 3rd day, and I knew you're going to kill that fierce competition no matter what! You'll be the most passionate lit guy for me. Stay the same, and keep in touch! :D After all, "Bro, Sab Chill hai bro!"

Nikunj Mohota : Sabse zyada RR karega, but fight bhi karega xD I am proud of how you learnt to treat failures in the past years. Also, how you developed your debating skills. Gonna miss coordie year, last minutes revisions, proxy requests, ranting, sunny, the shitty caseprep we did and of course placements (all's well that ends well?) Sorry Goa nahi ho paya but you did realize it's overrated so we're even XD

Adithya Iyer : Broooo, honestly I dont know where to start. Ive seen the good , bad and ugly with you (SMC lol). Itna ek saath debate kiya hai kabhi toh sikha dete hume bhi! Cant forget starting every speech with 'People need s' and going absolute bonkers in Rishikesh. Have rarely seen anyone this dedicated to an activity, or to life.here's to probably many more months/years of debating (new omkar bro). Stay the same!

Jaymal A. Lodha : You've been a part of some of the most insane memories in my insti life(rafting in a towel :p). I cant thank you enough for the support you've offered for the past 2 years and always been there to have those long conversations and to help me out. You've been really helpful and forthcoming for literally anything that i've asked you advice for.I wish you all the success in the world, debsoc definetly wont be the same without you.

Bhishma Dedhia : Yo dude! I am glad we were able to bury our differences. Freshie year ki kaafi bakchodhi yaad hai tere saath. Also golmaal cringe marathon in final year was epic and that also happened to be our final days in insti. Tera placement story sunke kaafi inspire hua mein <3 Thank you for being an amazing neighbor. Ram Ashray jaate hai jab vaapas aa jaye. Machate raho and stay in touch!

Drish Mahnot : Somehow always my first notification whenever I post something xD If Vatsal ka love react nahi aaya within 1 min I get worried 😂 Thanks for always being supportive man, really appreciate it :D

Gurparkash Singh : Man, we really struck a chord during our first MI when we shared a room. I can't remember getting this frank with anyone in such a short time. It sucks that the hostel change limited our interactions but I'll always fondly remember the time that we spent together. Our in depth conversations about movies were just amazing. Last sem me we met again when you were roaming around our hostel but you might not remember this :P. But that interaction brought back all those memories. Good Luck for the future, bro!

Pranil Joshi : Vaastall! I've had some of the most amazing times of my insti life with you. Co-coordie-ship is always a special bond. Never again will I get the chance to say ki "iss bande ke saath maine Chidambaram/Murthy se gaali khayi" xD. Do you remember the lengths to which we went to get that agio olio chicken for manoj bajpai? I had a lot of fun with you. Let's be in touch, of course!

Tanmay Garg : Helllloooooo vatsallll, bro zindagi main hard work se machane ki definition hain tu. I mean seriously, kaise bhai kaise 🤔 i have immense respect for you man. People always tried to show you down but you always stood up and proved your point. Also, i can never forget that time at smc 2018 when you died lol :p it has been amazing knowing you, no one has ever praised me for my tenure as much as you have and you make me believe that i did have a dope tenure (including IV if i may :p) those random fights we had were too much fun bro and we can only laugh at that now :p stay connected bro always and keep giving me goss :)

Pujan Biswas : First+Second year ke TT sessions yaad hai bro! I really loved to grab some free tables and play our sets there! One of your best qualities was that you have always been open for a great discussion on any topic, any where and anytime. Tere suggestions bhi kaafi faad they. Fast forward to one of the most important phase: placements. Nerves of steel and soul of platinum man. Gotta show those FlowT guys what they are missing. Keep the smile always and don't forget me! Yours, Bisso!

Ujjwal Kumar : Aur bhai roll number neighbours, same hostel, same laptop even same laptop skin cover. Kaise bhai itna similarity kaise..Aur pura 3 saal apna lab uff..Alag level tha bhai wo. Civil ka kuch yaad rhe ya na rhe uske saare labs zaroor yaad rhega tu, mahule,ramesh, ritu. Bhai bs bakchodi krte rehna n hamesha jugad lgate rehna aur jaldi jaane ke liye fight maarte rehna.Aur jb submission ka time aaye to group pe infyy message krte rehna. Btw wo gymkhana ground wala reading to yaad hai na :P It was fun bro. Jitni bhi gaaliyan dete the but finally har lab ka mast happy ending hota rehta tha.Aur ho sake to fifa aur practice krna,mere se kaafi haara hai :P All the best man, machate rehna.

Shubham Jain : Hi Vatsal, well until the end of third year i never knew you were a debater, and it was only during the award ceremony that i got to know about it. I can only assume ki tu infi machata hoga when it comes to debate though i wanted to have a formal debate with you once, but didn't got a chance. Well we have a long way ahead in our life, hope our path crosses in future and then we can have a discussion!! Also your message that i am the least sadist hardworking person xD (which i kinda disagree with) had go down in my memory. All the best for your future endeavors and be happy!! :)
