Sumit Jain: B...... Masssa 🙂 (Samjh to gya hi hoga ye 1st word) I miss all those moments we have spent in H16, H13., Trekking, Juhu etc etc. yad hai jb tu H15 wo ladki ka chakkar katne jata tha bar bar aur kaise uske samne hi teri band bajayi thi (Actually that was a mistak pr maza bhut aya tha us din) 🙂 😂 Khir Tu banda bhut acha hai aur bhut se maslo me bhut open minded hai which i really appreciate.. But I have a serious suggestion ki bhai Ladkiyo ke chakkar katne se acha hai direct approach karna 😂 😂 :-D Baki Tera Baba tere liye hmesha hazir hai 😂 Jaldi milna aur Dhyan rakhna apna.. 😂

Sushree Smita Pradhan: Masa yaar... what can i write for you. These 2 years feel too short and i wish we had more fun tym s. I have always loved your carefree laughter . Aur haan hamara 1st outing was special i will cherish those memories. Always be happy and have a successful life ahead.

Prasad Raju: Masa Bhaii. It all started in H12, B007. Those few days we 4 spent together were most memorable. Initially I thought u and Abid were classmates but never imagined u to be his senior. I enjoyd watching both of u fighting, arguing like kids and giving gaalis to each other. Still, you are together all the time. You'v been very patient with all of us and let the things off with a smile. You are very hard working person at the same time loves to chill with friends. Evn I've learnt many things in geology from u. Our combined studies before exams I cannot forget. I would love to cook for you all again. You're always welcome to our place. Stay fabulous. All the best for future endeavors.

You always holded me when I felt low or emotional. I can not forget how you celebrated my birthday even after a day of my date of birth and of course how you come to know that day. Journey in which you became masa from masrul bhai that is not going to confined from aligarh to iitb, it is going to last till this universe is alive. It could be very difficult in iitb without you. I am going to appreciate you for my life for those photographs of me and my girlfriend, you had captured that day.

NANDINI BISWAS: Masaa, is lockdown me sikhlo pahle baat pura karke phir hasna chahie ♀♀♀ I was so happy to know I have someone in class from my place. Your call at 2 am 'Cha khabe?' and then long conversation in H15 canteen and recently in BB was important to me. I appreciate your knowledge in history and analysis of Netflix series. I have learnt from you how to keep cool in confusion. Thats the best part of you. Thanks for dragging me outside room with " ki kono pattai nei to". You are big part of my insti life.
