Rohit Engla: Bro first of all I would thankyou for agreeing to becomes the DPC because I think We got two best DPCs in the institute. Log kehte hai college ka pehla dost Apka sabse achha dost banta hai, sach nikla. Bhai jab man karta tha tere room pe aata tha thanks for understanding me always and motivating me. Humne kafi time spend kiya hai sath me and I am sure aage bhi karenge. Best moments to tab hote the jab apan 5min k liye bethte the or 2-3 ghante nikal jate the. Bas ek chij bolunga bro itna jaldi kisi se attach mat hua kar ye real world me log use karenge teko. Or at last "tede muh bat mat kiya kar mujhse"

Shashank Kumar Sahu: Yo bestieee... M mundi hilana band nhi krunga, jo ukhadna hai ukhadle Apni friendship washing machine k pass hui thi I guess Apna 1st year ka Ganesh k sath Ganesh visarjan me dance kabhi nhi bhulunga. You are the worst dancer I have ever seen. Bolly-hop bhi tujhe dance krna nhi sikha paya Still tune khudke unique steps create kiye to wing k iconic steps ban gye. One is the "Baapu ji step" and the other is "Chammak challo". Thanks for being there always for me (Thane wali trip yaad hai?). Jab situation serious hoti thi tab hi tu sanely behave krta tha . Ek baat bus samjh nhi aai ki tu bar bar Bhandup kyu jata tha aur waha se aane k baad tere neck pe rashes kyu ho jate the?

Allen Bose: Yo bro!! I don't even know how I would have survived in that wing (H18) if it weren't for you. Split away from my wingies I had close to no company in the new wing. You were always there, just one call away. I would yell "Prakaasshhhhh" from my room and ask some random questions through the window. Then there were those random discussions aboout girls and spirituality and some totally were topics with you and Engla just to let time pass and enjoy. Also it was fun to go and pester Jindal together once in a while. I have immense respect for the effort that you put in during placement semester (from 0 to 100 in coding, just in a couple of months). Thanks for making me feel not lonely.
