Akansha Keshariya: Ayush, you are the first person I met at IITB, then we became friends. I hope you also remeber that room no. 113, spot admission. For your information let me tell you, at the beginning of the semester, all those gossips that you and your friends had about me seeing me with other boys... i know all that. And don't worry i never minded. I appreciate one thing about you, tumhe sab ki khabar hoti thi, kon kya kr rha he, krne wala he, kiske sth he etc. It was nice experience to have friend like you. See you soon.

Prasad Raju: Genius.. Master mind.. Gambler..!!
