Aayushi Baheti : Supp Dr. Garg! :P We first met in a physics doubt session where you mocked me for being in Chemical and here we are today, sipping KFC's crusher while you help me prepping for my placement tests :) You are still a self-obsessed guy. Give me my pending treats raees. Hope we stay in touch! <3 <3

Kavya Bhandari : Rohan yaar, we've remained such good friends since first year right till the end. You were always there for me in my ups and downs and I won't ever forget that. Relying on you was as easy as a blink. Won't ever forget your insane obsession with gadgets that always blew my mind! Mission salsa accomplished (finally after 4 years xD). To the best "runner" I could ever ask for... <3

Harsh Siloiya : RG brooo! The best gamer out there (only 2nd to me though :p). You were one of the first ever friends from the same dept I made. Will remember apne CSGO lan sessions in the 1st year, playing AC till 8-9pm in the office during our intern, discussions about games and gadgets and you flexing your Apple devices :p. Also thanks for keeping control of yourselves when you came drunk in front of my parents during that time xD. I hope we get to have the similar kinda fun some other day as well!

Naman Chindaliya : Suppp Rohan! You are so confident(over) about your TT skills. So sad we never got a chance for the showdown. Bhai intern ke 2 months aur zyada fun nahi ho sakte thae. And, shotgun position ke liye kya bhagte thae apan xD. Also, Uber turned out to be better than OLA(Random fact). PPO wale din kitne khush thae apan. You are an amazing person, I wish apnae aur zyada baat kiye hote. Milte rehna.

Ashi Gupta : Hey, met to you first time in TA sessions.Thanks for help in checking my bundle too! and then blockchain course. Your gaming enthu, confidence level, love for apple devices, and hating python for indentations...xD. I learnt OS much more from you than from whole course. Sorry for not of much help in assignment and bothering you. Stay healthy, All the best. Stay in touch.

Shubhankar Mihir Seth : Hey RG, you were kaafi intimidating when I knew you in Kota, but it became so much fun when we got here. We had such an amazing gang in freshie year, I never missed home. From our first night-out at Marine Drive to having you on the SMP team and sharing breakfast at the Capital, you've been an irreplaceable part of this incredible journey, and I hope our paths keep crossing. Till then, take care and best of luck!

Vikrant Garg : RGBoss, rghostofsparta, stupid_piece_of_shit, and more weird arbit messenger nicknames which I can't even write here. We entered through IITB Main Gate together in first year and left IITB together. This is not a coincidence, but this shows how close we are (Garg Bros). We have experienced most of the time at insti together. Joining early morning swimming classes, restless gaming nights, breakfasts at Campus Hub and Gullu, amazing Goa and Andaman Trip, and much more. Let's hope we will work in same city at some point of time in future.

Shreyas Pimpalgaonkar : SAB same. Ek do saal ki thodi randomness hai, but I'm sure we're going to work in the same company again. Hell if that doesn't happen then we'll end up creating a startup together, I'm 100% sure. Kota, Same dept, council, Focus, Ubisoft, all of them were so much fun with you! Stay the same, happy and walking faster than twice my speed. See you soon!
